AUNT MINNIE IS 103—Mrs. Minnie Heise, known to all as Aunt Minnie, celebrated her 103 birthday Sept. 29. An open house hosted by her niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Collis Young, 311 E. Main St., was held Sunday afternoon in the parlor of Trinity Lutheran Church. Circleville Mayor, Frank Barnhill, presents Mrs. Heise a dozen red roses and named Sunday as Minnie B. Heise Day in honor of her having lived a long and exemplary life. After living with Mr. and Mrs. Young for many years Aunt Minnie is now a resident of Brown's Memorial Home, 158 E. Mound St. She attends Trinity Lutheran Church, visits with friends and is a member of Pickaway County Senior Citizens.

State Airport Plan Beginning To Produce

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Norman J. Crabtree, deputy director of aviation in the Ohio Department of Transportation, says the state's $10 million airport-building binge is beginning to produce results.

The eight-year-old program has put airports in counties that never before had adequate airstrips.

The program was launched with a view to attracting industry, and Crabtree says 23 new industrial parks so far have been established near new airports.

"The people that make the decisions to build plants and add jobs do not go by bus, train or car," he said. "They fly."

Licking, Union and Delaware counties are among those which have benefitted with thriving industrial parks located near county airports. State officials claim the program has brought Ohio more than $250 million in additional personal income, more than 60,000 new jobs and $150 million in retail sales.

In the state's Appalachian region, which was particularly lacking in airport facilities, 26 of the 28 counties now have airports.

While some areas are benefitting, some county officials are less than enthusiastic about their new fields.

In Jackson County, Auditor James H. Hoover said the new airport has been "a thorn in the side of the county."

Hoover said the state contributed $100,000 to build the airstrip in 1968, but the county was stuck with an additional $200,000 cost resulting from construction problems.

The county also spends $12,000 a year to operate the airport, he said, and although the field was "built with good intentions," it has brought in little new industry.

In Wyandot County in western Ohio, the new airport is located off a county road near Upper Sandusky, with access through a private drive on the property of Luther J. Still and his wife, Frieda.

Still, who once was the official airport caretaker, says he thinks the state "made a mistake in putting an airport in every county. There has not been sufficient use of this airport. Its purpose hasn't been accomplished."

No industrial development has come to the cornfields around the Wyandot airport, although industries in Upper Sandusky use the field.

But state officials say the new airports will in time do the job they were supposed to do.

Crabtree says also if a similar program were started today it would cost the state four times as much.

Russians Send Speedy Bombers To Mid East

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union has sent supersonic bombers to Iraq for the first time in a move Pentagon officials believe could affect the power balance in the oil-rich Persian Gulf area.

Most Pentagon analysts predict the Russians will turn over a small number of TU22 blinder bombers to the Iraqis, although there is some opinion that the Soviets flew there on an exercise.

The Blinder, which can fly missions at about 1,000 miles an hour, is twice as fast and far more advanced than bombers the Russians previously gave any Arab air force.

Until now, the Soviets have concentrated on fighter planes for the Arabs.

Israelis probably will be worried about this new bomber development, but U.S. authorities appear to be focusing their concern on the Persian Gulf implications because of the energy crisis.

The first indication that the Russians had made the recent move came in a talk by Deputy Secretary of Defense William P. Clements last Friday, during which he stressed the imporance of the Persian Gulf's vast oil reserves.

Clements told a small group of civic leaders that the Russians had "put supersonic bombers in Iraq that were never there before."

He did not identify the planes, nor elaborate. Other Pentagon officials supplied details.

Some officials suggested the Russians might be using the bomber move as a go-slow signal to Iran, which is spending billions of dollars on modern arms bought principally from the United States and Britain.

Iran, a long-time U.S. ally, and Iraq, a Soviet client, have been rivals for a long time. That rivalry has taken on new importance in the broader western-Communist maneuvering for influence in the Persian Gulf-Indian Ocean region since Britain pulled out its forces a few years ago.

This would not be the first Russian action that could be interpreted as a warning to Iran.

American intelligence sources have reported at least 20 flights by very fast Soviet MIG25 Foxbat reconnaissance planes over Iranian territory this year.

Ironically, the overflights may have increased Iran's interest in buying even more sophisticated planes, such as the advanced F14 and F15 fighters being developed by the U.S. Navy and Air Force.

And the appearance of supersonic bombers in Iraq may serve to push the Shah of Iran even closer to buying the costly fighters, officials say.

Domestic Spending Bill Could Face Veto By Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Appropriations Committee takes up the biggest domestic spending bill today with an eventual veto by President Nixon in prospect.

The bill provides funds for the Health, Education and Welfare and Labor departments.

Nixon and Congress have staged a running battle over such legislation since he took office. Nixon has vetoed the bills five times and only been over-ruled once.

This year the President recommended $31.6 billion for the departments, but the House voted $32.8 billion.

The Senate committee, which is expected to act on the bill in a couple of sessions, will increase the figure if past experience is any guide.

Many Democratic senators have said that Nixon's budget included inadequate funds for the health, education and antipoverty programs.

Attention will be centered on committee actions in Congress this week.

Originally, the legislators hoped the 1973 session would end this month. But now the leaders expect it to run well into November.

In floor action, the Senate planned to pass late today the $21-billion military procurement authorization bill requiring a 110,000-man cut in U.S. troops overseas.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said Sunday the reduction is not likely to emerge intact from a conference with the House.

Floor debate also will begin during the day on the foreign economic aid bill authorizing $1.25 billion for the current year.

A mass transit operating subsidy measure is the only major legislation listed for debate this week in the House.

However, the House Ways and Means Committee begins closed-door work today on a Senate-passed bill to reform the private pension system.

On Wednesday, Ways and Means is to send to the House floor a sweeping foreign trade bill. Despite a plea from President Nixon, the panel is not expected to reverse its decision to include a provision denying trade concessions to Russia unless it eases its restrictive emigration policies.

Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., calls his Government Operations Committee into session today to begin writing a bill designed to give

Demo Panel Badly Split On Reforms

GAITHERSBURG, Md. (AP) — The committee drafting delegate selection rules for the 1976 Democratic convention has divided sharply over how to replace the controversial 1972 quotas.

It was unable to resolve the issue at the final session of a three-day meeting here Sunday and said it would try again next weekend when it hopes to complete its work.

The panel voted tentatively 8 to 5 to remove the special consideration for women, minorities and young people as an encouragement to representative convention delegates. However, the absence of three members made it uncertain whether that vote would stand up next week.

And, whatever the drafting committee decides, the quotas seemed certain to be fought over when the new rules are considered Oct. 27 by the full 73-member commission and early next year by the Democratic National Committee.

Baltimore councilwoman Barbara Mikulski, who heads both the drafting committee and the full commission, said she is confident that the commission can come up with rules that are "fair, work in the best interest of the party and are understood."

However, William DuChessi, secretary-treasurer of the Textile Workers Union, said the weekend had demonstrated the accuracy of his contention that the committee and the full commission are "absolutely stacked" against organized labor and party regulars.

Buzhardt's Son Needs Lawyer

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — George S. Buzhardt, son of presidential special counsel J. Fred Buzhardt, has been arrested on charges of possession of marijuana with intent to distribute, police here say.

Buzhardt, 20, a University of South Carolina student, was arrested last Wednesday night by narcotics agents while driving a car containing 12 pounds of marijuana, police said. Another USC student and a third youth in the car also were arrested, police said.

Young Buzhardt's father was appointed special counsel to President Nixon last May with responsibility of handling the Watergate investigation at the White House level.

Republican women's convention in Los Angeles.

In that fiery address, an angry Agnew said he would not resign if indicted, that he was being framed by persons in Maryland because he would not stop investigations against them, and that someone high in the Justice Department was out to get him to make up for bungling the Watergate investigation.

Afterward, Agnew is said to have told the California party leaders there would remain "lingering doubts" in the minds of many people even if his name is cleared. He said that he does expect to be cleared of allegations of wrongdoing.

Agnew's pessimism was not shared by the convention delegates, and it was said that the California GOP leaders also believe his future is not ruined.

It remained to be seen whether Agnew's view of the future would be changed by the tumultuous outpouring of support he received after Saturday's address, in which he again declared his innocence.

A federal grand jury in Baltimore is looking into alleged kickbacks to politicians by contractors in Maryland, where Agnew was formerly a county executive and governor.

In his Saturday speech, the vice president said the allegations against him were a frameup by persons seeking revenge because he refused to use his office to halt the federal inquiry into the activities of others in Maryland.

Some "small and fearful men" giving evidence against him have perjured themselves, Agnew asserted. He said he had never violated his public trust in any office.

Agnew also renewed more sharply than ever his charge that senior officials in the Justice Department were trying to destroy him politically to salvage reputations soiled by failure in Watergate and other criminal proceedings.

In a statement after the speech, Atty. Gen. Elliot L. Richardson said he would "remain committed to the standards of conduct and fairness which Americans have long cherished and which our legal system is intended to protect."

Meanwhile, Newsweek magazine reported Sunday that a team of Nixon's own lawyers tried to work out a deal between the Justice Department and Agnew's lawyers.

Newsweek quoted a Justice Department official as saying that the Nixon team, headed by J. Fred Buzhardt, was seeking a deal starting from the department's "bottom-line requirement" that Agnew resign and plead guilty to a charge for which he could get at least nine months in jail.

Newsweek described Buzhardt's role as "essentially that of a go-between hoping to budge both parties from fixed positions."

A Justice Department spokesman declined comment on the Newsweek report. The White House, which last week said the presence of Nixon's lawyers at the meetings was purely "informational," also did not comment on the story.

In his remarks to the GOP leaders, Agnew denied that he and his lawyers had ever initiated plea bargaining. Although he did not deny that such meetings took place, he said a bargain such as has been reported never was under serious consideration.

He said he couldn't understand why the incident "is causing such a flap. There's not a day goes by in this nation that law officials don't arrest the wrong people."

He said bondsmen are not restricted to jurisdictions and state borders like police. They can go anywhere and apprehend a prisoner for bond jumping and local enforcement officials must support them.

"A bail bondsman or agent has more authority to make an arrest than a policeman as long as we have a warrant for arrest issued by the court he failed to appear in," said Schott.

She said she hired an attorney but declined to discuss any legal plans. The attorney said no decision has been made about a suit.

Miss Langham said a pair of bondsmen approached her in a Lexington, Ky. hospital last Tuesday night and attempted to handcuff her. Hospital security guards called police but police permitted the bondsmen from the Libert Bonding Co. in Cincinnati to detain her.

She was held in the Cincinnati Central Station lockup for 28 hours before a policeman at Hamilton County Municipal Court checked her complaint and found they were holding the wrong woman.

Another woman, arrested on charges of possession of an hallucinogen and defrauding an innkeeper, has used Miss Langham's identification when arrested and to post a $700 bond, police said. A warrant was issued when the woman failed to appear in court.

Edgar I. Schott, owner of the bonding company, said he sent the "bond skip chasers" for the nurse in order to recover the bond money.

Schott said he was "genuinely sorry" for the mistake.

"If given the same set of circumstances," he added, however, "we would do it over gain. It was a freak occurrence... a strange combination of circumstances."

There is usually a two-week lag in price trends from the auction barns to the meat counters.

However, he said price reductions may only be temporary. He predicted that by November prices will be as high or higher than they were earlier this year.

At the present, he said supermarkets are attempting "to unclog the lines of beef that were held back and fattened by the farmers waiting for the end of the freeze." The freeze on beef ended last month.

When the supplies dwindle, he said, the prices will probably zoom skyward.

Nurse Grabbed, Jailed Wrongfully

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — A Lexington, Ky. nurse said Sunday she still feels "it is unbelievable" that she could be taken off a hospital floor by two bondsmen and jailed for 28 hours in Ohio in a case of mistaken identity.

Phyllis Langham, 25, said she doesn't plan to "return to work for another week. It has been such an ordeal."

She said she hired an attorney but declined to discuss any legal plans. The attorney said no decision has been made about a suit.

Miss Langham said a pair of bondsmen approached her in a Lexington, Ky. hospital last Tuesday night and attempted to handcuff her. Hospital security guards called police but police permitted the bondsmen from the Libert Bonding Co. in Cincinnati to detain her.

Meat Prices Likely To Dip, Then Increase

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A spokesman for a large central Ohio supermarket chain said shoppers can expect meat prices to dip during the next few weeks, but then watch out.

The official of Big Bear said consumers will discover lower prices at the meat counter this week because market prices for live hogs and cattle have been on a decline since August.

He said beef prices may be reduced by as much as 16 cents a pound from last week. Some cuts of pork will be nearly 20 cents lower, he added.

Producers Livestock Association said the auction prices for cattle and hogs have dipped since August. At that time, the range for cattle was $57 to $60.40 per hundredweight and around $60 for hogs. Now, the association said, prices are $40 to $44 for cattle and around $21 for hogs.

The supermarket spokesman said there is usually a two-week lag in price trends from the auction barns to the meat counters.

However, he said price reductions may only be temporary. He predicted that by November prices will be as high or higher than they were earlier this year.

Agnew Swings Hammer Blows At Critics

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew has said privately that he believes his political career has been destroyed. But he has come out swinging publicly at his accusers, determined to prove his innocence.

Aides said Agnew told a private weekend meeting of California Republican officials that even if he is exonerated of allegations of corruption, his political future has been destroyed.

Agnew spoke to the Republican officials Saturday after dramatically declaring war on his accusers in a nationally televised speech to a Republican women's convention in Los Angeles.

In that fiery address, an angry Agnew said he would not resign if indicted, that he was being framed by persons in Maryland because he would not stop investigations against them, and that someone high in the Justice Department was out to get him to make up for bungling the Watergate investigation.

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — Profit taking continued to eat away today at the strong gains that had fattened the stock market during the last few weeks.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials had slipped 4.60 to 942.50 at noon. The blue-chip indicator, which had advanced 60 points during its two-week rally, slid about 6 points Friday. Declines held a 7-to-5 lead over advances in active trading on the New York Stock Exchange. The Big Board's composite index of some 1,500 common stocks was off .34 points to 58.17 at noon.

Prices were also lower on the American Stock Exchange, where the market-value index dipped .07 to 105.34.

Fannie Mae, up 1/2 to 23 1/8, was the Big Board's most-active issue on a volume of 1,065,400 shares, including a 945,600-share block that crossed at 23. Brokers said lower interest rates should improve profits.

Black Lung Lawyer Fees Under Fire

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of a Senate Judiciary subcommittee has questioned the size of fees paid to attorneys representing miners afflicted with black lung disease.

Sen. John V. Tunney, D-Calif., said these attorneys earn an average of $5,000 per claim, while lawyers who represents veterans in seeking benefits are limited by federal law to $10 per claim.

Tunney's subcommittee, which is probing legal fees in general, today was scheduled to take testimony on fees paid under the Black Lung Benefits Act of 1972.

"Last year, eleven attorneys in Kentucky each made between $100,000 and $1.08 million representing miners in obtaining black lung benefits under state and federal programs," said Tunney.

"Some claim that these attorneys did little or no work to reap these huge rewards."

One of the attorneys, reported by Tunney to have made $300,000 last year, was among the witnesses called to testify before the subcommittee. Other prospective witnesses include state and federal officials.

County Board Of Health Discusses Burning Laws

Certain areas of Pickaway County will be affected by the new open burning rules of the Ohio Environmental Protection Agency the county board of health was informed last week.

Hugh Barnhill, county environmentalist, said the new regulations prohibit burning of rubbish and trash within one mile of Circleville and within incorporated areas in the county with populations of 1,000 or more.

In rural areas burning which causes discomfort to neighbors is prohibited.

The board of health discussed at length odor problems associated with Container Corporation Of America's waste treatment facilities. Barnhill reported he has been in touch with Ohio EPA officials concerning this problem.

The Scioto river is under intensive study by Federal and State water pollution personnel in attempts to analyze the effects of current pollution verses what happens when attempts are made to clean up the river. CCA's new facilities are part of the program to reduce pollution in the river. CCA reports that changes are being made to reduce odor problems. Lower air temperatures should reduce odors significantly this winter, Barnhill said.

The board of health members agreed the odor is excessive and that something must be done to alleviate the problem. It was unanimously decided to invite a representative of CCA to the next meeting of the board of health to openly discuss this problem and try to arrive at a satisfactory solution.

Mrs. Carlene Francis, county health nurse, reported to the board that she assisted with the Prenatal Clinic and the Well Child Clinic at Berger Hospital. At the Well Child Clinic county children were seen. Two children were referred to Children's Hospital clinics and one child was referred to Dr. Robert Smith for follow-up.

Mrs. Francis met with Speech and Hearing therapists and planned hearing screenings for county schools. She worked with the therapists in each district. Five hundred nine children were screened in the Teays Valley District, 200 in Westfall and 334 in Logan Elm. Westfall district's count is down because all students were screened in that district last year according to Mrs. Francis. This year it was only necessary to screen first graders and new students.

Vision screening has been completed by mothers in Walnut, Scioto and Monroe Schools. Students needing follow-up vision testing will be checked by Mrs. Francis at a later date.

One school child was examined at the office and a letter was sent to the parents advising them of treatment for pediculosis. Parents of two children were advised by the nurse to take their children to their family doctor for examination.

Home visits were made to a crippled child and one was made at the request of a school principal.

Immunization clinics are being held in the health department office the second and fourth Fridays of each month. Immunizations given in September were 14 DPT, 14 polio and three measles. Transportation of children needing health services is being sought by the board.

Barnhill and Thoburn Blaney, sanitarian, reported their department had collected and examined 41 water samples from private and semi-public water supplies, checked soils for 24 homesites and approved the installation of home sewage systems for 18 individuals. Nine permits for the installation of home sewage systems were issued during the month and eight applications were received.

Seven nuisance complaints were investigated with five of them being brought to a conclusion. Two are pending further action. Ten food service inspections were completed. Several package waste treatment plants were checked for proper operation with reports being sent to operators.

The board of health meeting was held at the County Health Department, 705 S. Court St. Mrs. William Hildenbrand is president of the board. Members present included Paul Fenstermaker, Richard Christensen and Norman Godden.

TV Band Takes Two Trips

Teays Valley Marching Band has completed two trips in the past two weeks. They traveled to West Jefferson and Athens to perform with other bands.

On Sept. 23, the Viking Band was invited to participate in Band Day festivities at Ohio University in Athens. They were among nearly 3,000 other band students from 29 bands who performed at the half time show during the OU and Kent State game.

Thirty-two bands from Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana performed in competition on Sept. 29, at the ninth annual West Jefferson Marching Band Festival at Kile stadium. Students from Teays Valley competed with 5,000 students from 32 schools in marching and playing skills. They performed a precision step drill to the music of famous patriotic songs.

Lunch for both outings was provided by the Music Boosters of Teays Valley. The boosters wish to extend their congratulations to the band for their performances on both days.

NEW YORK (AP) — Profit taking continued to eat away today at the strong gains that had fattened the stock market during the last few weeks.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials had slipped 4.60 to 942.50 at noon. The blue-chip indicator, which had advanced 60 points during its two-week rally, slid about 6 points Friday. Declines held a 7-to-5 lead over advances in active trading on the New York Stock Exchange. The Big Board's composite index of some 1,500 common stocks was off .34 points to 58.17 at noon.

Prices were also lower on the American Stock Exchange, where the market-value index dipped .07 to 105.34.

Fannie Mae, up 1/2 to 23 3/4, was the Big Board's most-active issue on a volume of 1,085,400 shares, including a 945,600-share block that crossed at 23. Brokers said lower interest rates should improve profits.

Black Lung Lawyer Fees Under Fire

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of a Senate Judiciary subcommittee has questioned the size of fees paid to attorneys representing miners afflicted with black lung disease.

Sen. John V. Tunney, D-Calif., said these attorneys earn an average of $5,000 per claim, while lawyers who represents veterans in seeking benefits are limited by federal law to $10 per claim.

Tunney's subcommittee, which is probing legal fees in general, today was scheduled to take testimony on fees paid under the Black Lung Benefits Act of 1972.

"Last year, eleven attorneys in Kentucky each made between $100,000 and $1.08 million representing miners in obtaining black lung benefits under state and federal programs," said Tunney.

"Some claim that these attorneys did little or no work to reap these huge rewards."

One of the attorneys, reported by Tunney to have made $300,000 last year, was among the witnesses called to testify before the subcommittee. Other prospective witnesses include state and federal officials.

County Board Of Health Discusses Burning Laws

Certain areas of Pickaway County will be affected by the new open burning rules of the Ohio Environmental Protection Agency the county board of health was informed last week.

Hugh Barnhill, county environmentalist, said the new regulations prohibit burning of rubbish and trash within one mile of Circleville and within incorporated areas in the county with populations of 1,000 or more.

In rural areas burning which causes discomfort to neighbors is prohibited.

The board of health discussed at length odor problems associated with Container Corporation Of America's waste treatment facilities. Barnhill reported he has been in touch with Ohio EPA officials concerning this problem.

The Scioto river is under intensive study by Federal and State water pollution personnel in attempts to analyze the effects of current pollution verses what happens when attempts are made to clean up the river. CCA's new facilities are part of the program to reduce pollution in the river. CCA reports that changes are being made to reduce odor problems. Lower air temperatures should reduce odors significantly this winter, Barnhill said.

The board of health members agreed the odor is excessive and that something must be done to alleviate the problem. It was unanimously decided to invite a representative of CCA to the next meeting of the board of health to openly discuss this problem and try to arrive at a satisfactory solution.

Mrs. Carlene Francis, county health nurse, reported to the board that she assisted with the Prenatal Clinic and the Well Child Clinic at Berger Hospital. At the Well Child Clinic county children were seen. Two children were referred to Children's Hospital clinics and one child was referred to Dr. Robert Smith for follow-up.

Mrs. Francis met with Speech and Hearing therapists and planned hearing screenings for county schools. She worked with the therapists in each district. Five hundred nine children were screened in the Teays Valley District, 200 in Westfall and 334 in Logan Elm. Westfall district's count is down because all students were screened in that district last year according to Mrs. Francis. This year it was only necessary to screen first graders and new students.

Vision screening has been completed by mothers in Walnut, Scioto and Monroe Schools. Students needing follow-up vision testing will be checked by Mrs. Francis at a later date.

One school child was examined at the office and a letter was sent to the parents advising them of treatment for pediculosis. Parents of two children were advised by the nurse to take their children to their family doctor for examination.

Home visits were made to a crippled child and one was made at the request of a school principal.

Immunization clinics are being held in the health department office the second and fourth Fridays of each month. Immunizations given in September were 14 DPT, 14 polio and three measles. Transportation of children needing health services is being sought by the board.

Barnhill and Thoburn Blaney, sanitarian, reported their department had collected and examined 41 water samples from private and semi-public water supplies, checked soils for 24 homesites and approved the installation of home sewage systems for 18 individuals. Nine permits for the installation of home sewage systems were issued during the month and eight applications were received.

Seven nuisance complaints were investigated with five of them being brought to a conclusion. Two are pending further action. Ten food service inspections were completed. Several package waste treatment plants were checked for proper operation with reports being sent to operators.

The board of health meeting was held at the County Health Department, 705 S. Court St. Mrs. William Hildenbrand is president of the board. Members present included Paul Fenstermaker, Richard Christensen and Norman Godden.

TV Band Takes Two Trips

Teays Valley Marching Band has completed two trips in the past two weeks. They traveled to West Jefferson and Athens to perform with other bands.

On Sept. 23, the Viking Band was invited to participate in Band Day festivities at Ohio University in Athens. They were among nearly 3,000 other band students from 29 bands who performed at the half time show during the OU and Kent State game.

Thirty-two bands from Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana performed in competition on Sept. 29, at the ninth annual West Jefferson Marching Band Festival at Kile stadium. Students from Teays Valley competed with 5,000 students from 32 schools in marching and playing skills. They performed a precision step drill to the music of famous patriotic songs.

Lunch for both outings was provided by the Music Boosters of Teays Valley. The boosters wish to extend their congratulations to the band for their performances on both days.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Incredible as it seems we are three fourths finished with 1973 and only 88 days away from a visit from good old Santa Claus. Oh, well, to get to the business at hand which is wishing happy returns of the day to Steven Carter, Jean (Mrs. Jack) Lett, Stan Beaumann, Oct. 1; Jane Schein, Kelly Steinhauser, Bill Kneec, Susie Custer Eitel, Charles Lahrmmer, Jamie Cupps, Lu Hoover, Polle Buskirk, Buddy Roberts, Oct. 2;

Joanne Hillman, Mae Carter, Chester McCloud, Marvne Rhoads and her twin sister Maxine Wilson, Tom Hamilton, Debbie Hein, Sherri Dountz Van Horn, Katherine Reeser, Oct. 3; Jay Long, Joyce Ward, Dave Eitel, Linda Keller Yates, Oct. 4; Edna Mosley, Gary Roberts, Delbert Mosley Jr., Matthew Brown, J. F. Picklesimer, Brian Brigner, Paul List, Turned on Colleen Justice, and in memory of a dear friend and gracious lady, the late Alice Schleich, Oct. 5; LaDonna Adams, Ruth Christopher, Donna Evans, Brett Hastings, Loretta Massey, Shirley Fenneken, Richard Donegan, Leroy Strange, Stephanie Garland, Richard Speakman, Scott Allen Moore, John Williams, special to one of the nicest persons Blanche Graffis, Oct. 6; David Valone, Kathy Schleich, Emma Arledge, Karen Eitel, Brent Hanawalt, Roger VanHoose, Goldie Dennis, Beverlee Lance, Oct. 7.

A real marital milestone has been attained by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reisinger. They were honored guests at a family dinner Sunday celebrating their 40th anniversary. Sharing the fellowship of the day were Mr. and Mrs. George Donohew, Mr. and Mrs. John Reisinger, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reisinger, Jeff Reed, Mark, Doug and Lori Donohew, John and Frank Reisinger.

Additional well wishers in the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reisinger and son Rex. A phone call from their daughter, Mrs. Luella Lichtenwaltd of Cypress, Calif., wishing happiness, good wishes and many more companionable years added to the joy of the day.

Wherever we wander, wherever we roam, it is always good to come home and so it was last week for Georgia London and her traveling buddy Martha Henson when they stopped in for a relaxing time with Georgia's mom, Mrs. Kate Sollars.

Georgia and Martha had just returned to the states from a dream-come-true vacation touring a number of European countries such as Switzerland, Holland, Yugoslavia, Germany, Italy, France, Lichtenstein, England and several others. From here they went to their home at Columbus and back to the workday world with heaps of happy memories to sustain until the next fabulous vacation time.

Grandma Brayshaw (Agnes) was delighted to have her grandson Alan Brayshaw of Santa Cruz, Calif. house guest with her recently. Also visiting recently with Grandma B. were her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brayshaw of Fallston, Pa. They overnighed with brother Jack and his Patti of our town and also visited with sister Pearl Cochenour.

Coming from Aliquippa, Pa. Sunday to spend the day with Grandma B. was a very dear friend of yesteryear, Mrs. Selma Kroen. She was accompanied on the trip with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ayers and children of Freedom, Pa. Grandma B. and her guests all had Sunday dinner with Pete and Pearl Cochenour.

We have received word from Macon, Ga. that our beloved former neighbor Mrs. Phoebe Smiley suffered a very sick "spell" last Sunday which distresses us no end. However, Sweetpea (her daughter Ruth Shippe) writes that Grandma Smiley is somewhat better.

Friends and well wishers who might want to send along a word of encouragement and cheers of the day may do so by mailing the missive to 3911 Guyton Street, Macon, Ga., 31206.

In my dotage (there is no other excuse I guess) I think I overlooked letting everyone know that Colleen (Mrs. Max) Justice was hostesses par excellence to her canasta club a week or so ago (and if I do not report her topnotch hostessing she will never forgive me). Anyway, winning the carefully selected prizes were Margene Looney, high; Mae Litter, traveling; Sue Graffis, door; low went to yours truly who played brilliantly (and honestly). Not one but two secret sisters gifts were received by this gal, too.

September is birth date and anniversary (in fact Sept. 27 made it twenty for Poppy Bill and me). O.K. all you wise acres Bill did not receive any sympathy cards!

Breaking bones seems to be the fashion right now for our villagers — newest to be added to the list is Mr. Walter Hill who suffers a broken left arm.

From the moaning and groaning department let me tell you this moving scene is for the "birds". Man alive! Talk about shortages — is there anything that doesn't have to be ordered? Saints preserve us I hope I never but never go this route again. Frustration is fast becoming my first, second, and last name.

Sp-4 Bradley Kneec was a special visitor in our town during the Festival coming from his station at Fort Hood, Texas so he could be here for the Senior Citizens Honor Hour because his grandmother, Mrs. Ethel King, was among those so honored.

Brad was with his parents, Raymond and Marvne Kneec. His sister, Anita Louise Seymour of Columbus, was also those who came for the occasion.

Think About: A man's integrity, once pawned for some temporary profit can never be reclaimed for anything near its original value.

Hawaiian Police Find Need For Japanese Phrase Book

HONOLULU (AP) — To take care of the tourists, police here have armed themselves with a book of handy law enforcement phrases in two languages.

With Japanese tourists coming here in increasing numbers, the Honolulu Police Department found a language barrier had arisen between its officers and some of their duties.

And much of the barrier's burden fell on patrolman Robert Wood, who learned Japanese while serving in the Navy.

"My fellow officers called me to interpret a lot," he said. "And I often got stuck on police terms—words I would not normally have learned or used in conversation."

Wood first tried to solve the English-Japanese problem by preparing a small dictionary with help from his Japanese wife, Chiyo. It didn't work well, however, because officers did not know how to use the words.

So Wood printed, at his own expense, a 32-page book of questions and answers written in English and Japanese, said West Young, the department's information officer.

"This book is designed to be self-explanatory," said Wood.

Saxbe Against Fast Federal Pay Raises

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. William Saxbe, R-Ohio, voted with the minority Friday when the Senate passed 72-16 a resolution to restore the Oct. 1 date for federal pay raises that President Nixon wanted delayed until Dec. 1.

Ohio's other senator, Robert Taft Jr., also a Republican, was not recorded as voting.

The world's first skating club was established in Edinburgh in 1742.

"All the officer has to do is point to the question and look at the answer pointed out by the persons being questioned."

If "You're under arrest" gets no response, an officer can check the phonetic spelling of the Japanese characters and say, "Anata wa taiho sarete imasu."

"It's very, very rare when we arrest a Japanese tourist," said Young. "Generally, we're asked for directions, or called on a theft or auto accident case."

The book covers most situations an officer encounters, from asking, "What is your name?" to helping the tourist describe a suspect.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Incredible as it seems we are three fourths finished with 1973 and only 88 days away from a visit from good old Santa Claus. Oh, well, to get to the business at hand which is wishing happy returns of the day to Steven Carter, Jean (Mrs. Jack) Lett, Stan Beaumann, Oct. 1; Jane Schein, Kelly Steinhauser, Bill Kneec, Susie Custer Eitel, Charles Lahmer, Jamie Cupps, Lu Hoover, Polle Buskirk, Buddy Roberts, Oct. 2;

Joanne Hillman, Mae Carter, Chester McCloud, Marvin Rhoads and her twin sister Maxine Wilson, Tom Hamilton, Debbie Hein, Sherri Dountz Van Horn, Katherine Reeser, Oct. 3; Jay Long, Joyce Ward, Dave Eitel, Linda Keller Yates, Oct. 4; Edna Mosley, Gary Roberts, Delbert Mosley Jr., Matthew Brown, J. F. Picklesimer, Brian Brigner, Paul List, Turned on Colleen Justice, and in memory of a dear friend and gracious lady, the late Alice Schleich, Oct. 5; LaDonna Adams, Ruth Christopher, Donna Evans, Brett Hastings, Loretta Massey, Shirley Fenneken, Richard Donegan, Leroy Strange, Stephanie Garland, Richard Speakman, Scott Allen Moore, John Williams, special to one of the nicest persons Blanche Graffis, Oct. 6; David Valone, Kathy Schleich, Emma Arledge, Karen Eitel, Brent Hanawalt, Roger VanHoose, Goldie Dennis, Beverlee Lance, Oct. 7.

A real marital milestone has been attained by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reisinger. They were honored guests at a family dinner Sunday celebrating their 40th anniversary. Sharing the fellowship of the day were Mr. and Mrs. George Donohew, Mr. and Mrs. John Reisinger, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reisinger, Jeff Reed, Mark, Doug and Lori Donohew, John and Frank Reisinger.

Additional well wishers in the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reisinger and son Rex. A phone call from their daughter, Mrs. Luella Lichtenwaldt of Cypress, Calif., wishing happiness, good wishes and many more companionable years added to the joy of the day.

Wherever we wander, wherever we roam, it is always good to come home and so it was last week for Georgia London and her traveling buddy Martha Henson when they stopped in for a relaxing time with Georgia's mom, Mrs. Kate Sollars.

Georgia and Martha had just returned to the states from a dream-come-true vacation touring a number of European countries such as Switzerland, Holland, Yugoslavia, Germany, Italy, France, Lichtenstein, England and several others. From here they went to their home at Columbus and back to the workday world with heaps of happy memories to sustain until the next fabulous vacation time.

Grandma Brayshaw (Agnes) was delighted to have her grandson Alan Brayshaw of Santa Cruz, Calif. house guest with her recently. Also visiting recently with Grandma B. were her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brayshaw of Fallston, Pa. They overnighed with brother Jack and his Patti of our town and also visited with sister Pearl Cochenour.

Coming from Aliquippa, Pa. Sunday to spend the day with Grandma B. was a very dear friend of yesteryear, Mrs. Selma Kroen. She was accompanied on the trip with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ayers and children of Freedom, Pa. Grandma B. and her guests all had Sunday dinner with Pete and Pearl Cochenour.

We have received word from Macon, Ga. that our beloved former neighbor Mrs. Phoebe Smiley suffered a very sick "spell" last Sunday which distresses us no end. However, Sweetpea (her daughter Ruth Shippe) writes that Grandma Smiley is somewhat better.

Friends and well wishers who might want to send along a word of encouragement and cheers of the day may do so by mailing the missive to 3911 Guyton Street, Macon, Ga., 31206.

In my dotage (there is no other excuse I guess) I think I overlooked letting everyone know that Colleen (Mrs. Max) Justice was hostesses par excellence to her canasta club a week or so ago (and if I do not report her topnotch hosting she will never forgive me). Anyway, winning the carefully selected prizes were Margene Looney, high; Mae Litter, traveling; Sue Graffis, door; low went to yours truly who played brilliantly (and honestly). Not one but two secret sisters gifts were received by this gal, too.

September is birth date and anniversary (in fact Sept. 27 made it twenty for Poppy Bill and me). O.K. all you wise acres Bill did not receive any sympathy cards!

Breaking bones seems to be the fashion right now for our villagers — newest to be added to the list is Mr. Walter Hill who suffers a broken left arm.

From the moaning and groaning department let me tell you this moving scene is for the "birds". Man alive! Talk about shortages — is there anything that doesn't have to be ordered? Saints preserve us I hope I never but never go this route again. Frustration is fast becoming my first, second, and last name.

Sp-4 Bradley Kneec was a special visitor in our town during the Festival coming from his station at Fort Hood, Texas so he could be here for the Senior Citizens Honor Hour because his grandmother, Mrs. Ethel King, was among those so honored.

Brad was with his parents, Raymond and Marvinne Kneec. His sister, Anita Louise Seymour of Columbus, was also those who came for the occasion.

Think About: A man's integrity, once pawned for some temporary profit can never be reclaimed for anything near its original value.

Hawaiian Police Find Need For Japanese Phrase Book

HONOLULU (AP) — To take care of the tourists, police here have armed themselves with a book of handy law enforcement phrases in two languages.

With Japanese tourists coming here in increasing numbers, the Honolulu Police Department found a language barrier had arisen between its officers and some of their duties.

And much of the barrier's burden fell on patrolman Robert Wood, who learned Japanese while serving in the Navy.

"My fellow officers called me to interpret a lot," he said. "And I often got stuck on police terms—words I would not normally have learned or used in conversation."

Wood first tried to solve the English-Japanese problem by preparing a small dictionary with help from his Japanese wife, Chiyo. It didn't work well, however, because officers did not know how to use the words.

So Wood printed, at his own expense, a 32-page book of questions and answers written in English and Japanese, said West Young, the department's information officer.

"This book is designed to be self-explanatory," said Wood.

Saxbe Against Fast Federal Pay Raises

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. William Saxbe, R-Ohio, voted with the minority Friday when the Senate passed 72-16 a resolution to restore the Oct. 1 date for federal pay raises that President Nixon wanted delayed until Dec. 1.

Ohio's other senator, Robert Taft Jr., also a Republican, was not recorded as voting.

The world's first skating club was established in Edinburgh in 1742.

"All the officer has to do is point to the question and look at the answer pointed out by the persons being questioned."

If "You're under arrest" gets no response, an officer can check the phonetic spelling of the Japanese characters and say, "Anata wa taiho sarete imasu."

"It's very, very rare when we arrest a Japanese tourist," said Young. "Generally, we're asked for directions, or called on a theft or auto accident case."

The book covers most situations an officer encounters, from asking, "What is your name?" to helping the tourist describe a suspect.

Longest Space Feat

Other news developments in the last two months were such that Skylab II did not always achieve the headlines it deserved.

Since Alan L. Bean, Jack R. Lousma and Owen K. Garriott blasted off on their mission July 28, they have overcome heat problems, leak problems and gyroscope problems. At one point, conditions aboard the orbiting laboratory were deteriorating at such a rate that Skylab III was rolled out for a possible rescue mission.

But the orbiting trio demonstrated anew its adaptability to adversity and its skill and dexterity at space repair and maintenance.

Skylab II has included a space walk for reloading solar telescope cameras and hooking up a new set of gyroscopes. There have been tests of rocket belt propulsions, hundreds of hours of studying the sun through those solar telescopes, days of photography and study of Earth resources—even the melting of crystals in space to test the cooling of molten materials without the complications of gravity.

What becomes obvious is that Skylab II has not been simply an exercise in national oneupsmanship for time spent aimlessly in space. It has been a demonstration of science in action, with ample documentation of the value of having qualified human beings aboard when all those expensive scientific instruments need recharging or minor adjustments.

While daily minicrises distracted our attention from Bean, Lousma and Garriott, they were up there performing efficiently and quietly. We might take time out to reflect on how brave we have become as a nation about something as truly remarkable as the achievements of the three men aboard Skylab II and the network of technologists that sustained them.

The Reagan Push

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

Governor Ronald Reagan of California could be the shoo-in for conservative support at the 1976 Republican National convention provided one thing happens: his Proposition One, which would cut the total of personal state income taxes from 8.3 per cent to 7 per cent over the next 15 years, thus saving Californians $118 billion, must win in a referendum this coming November 6.

Some 150 conservative leaders (many of whom prefer to be called libertarians) met at the Skyline Lodge in Washington, D. C., last week to take stock of a political situation that is making it difficult for most Republican aspirants to the Presidency. It was easy to see that all of the politicians who are connected in any way whatsoever with Watergate, whether pro-Nixon or anti-Nixon, have unforgiving conservative enemies. Furthermore, Vice President Spiro Agnew, innocent of Maryland scandal though he may be, is at best a deflected possibility. Nixon is not being trusted to choose a Crown Prince. So who is available? It could be John B. Connally of Texas making it on his own or Nelson Rockefeller of New York, but what are their issues? People no longer like politicians as such, so charisma and large pocket books are no longer what they were in John F. Kennedy's time.

The buzz-buzz at the conservatives' meeting most assuredly reflected the foregoing analysis. No poll was taken, but the big question was "When does the Reagan push begin?" Reagan has grabbed the tax issue, which has a greater potential than his still youthful smile. His partisans from California, with the November 6 referendum to hurdle, said "wait." They are hoping for a big success on November 6, and if the expected victory comes, Reagan, far more than Connally or Rockefeller or Senators Howard Baker and Charles Percy, will be the man to beat.

The Reagan tax plan has quirks, but in essence it is simple. Even at a lower income tax rate the total tax take in California is bound to increase over the years with population growth and rising personal incomes. So the return to the taxpayers of some 20 per cent of 1973 income taxes, voted by the Legislature when some 586,000 valid signatures put Proposition One on the November ballot, will hardly deprive the state government of a needed surplus. The Reagan idea is to put the 1973 tax cut permanently into the State Constitution. People with incomes of $4,000 a year or less would be exempted from income taxes. So would families with $8,000 or less. The rest could count on the slowly declining rate.

Some of the "special interests" — teachers' associations, the "educational lobby," some of the labor unions — try to conjure up dire specters if the Reagan lid on income tax rates becomes part of the State Constitution. But the whole business has been carefully worked out, and special interests objections are by no means monolithic. There would be a State emergency fund provided for "unforeseen needs." The State would not be allowed to shift services to local government without paying for them. Programs for improving the environment and giving aid to education and public safety would not be permitted to fall below current levels. There would be no interference with federal revenue-sharing.

Nor would the lid on income taxes put the government into any unbearable straitjacket. The "emergency fund" would, on Reagan's estimation, come to two-tenths of one per cent of total personal income. If an emergency situation were to exhaust the reserve, the legislature could, by a two-thirds vote and with the concurrence of the Governor, impose a temporary tax increase that would last until the next general election, when it could be continued or canceled by vote of the people. Any legislative demands for new spending programs that might bust income tax ceilings would also require popular sanction at the polls on election day.

If the tax revolt is as real as Reagan thinks, and if individuals are alive to their opportunity to keep special interest politicians from raiding their bank accounts, November 6 in California could mark a genuine turn in history. And a big victory for the taxpayers in California would surely throw the Reagan Presidential push into a roaring high.

Farm Prices Drop Sharply In Month

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department's index of farm prices dropped eight per cent in the month ended Sept. 15, the biggest decline in more than 25 years.

Although much of the drop was due to sharply lower prices for livestock—as a group down 14 per cent from August records—the Crop Reporting Board listed declines for a number of other important commodities Friday.

Wheat, cotton and milk were among those going up since mid-August, while soybeans and corn joined the losers. However, the over-all price index still was 48 per cent above a year earlier. In August, it had jumped a record 20 per cent from July.

Cattle prices averaged $47.50 per hundredweight, down from the all-time high of $51.70 in August. That price is based on what farmers get for all animals sold for beef, whether old canner cows or prime steers.

Hogs were down to $43.80 per hundredweight, from the record of $56.50 in August.

Other declines from August included: corn $2.15 per bushel, down from $2.68; soybeans $5.81 per bushel, down from $8.99; lambs $33.10 per hun-dredweight, down from $42.60; and broilers 30.3 cents per pound, down from 37.8.

Cotton at the farm averaged 44.6 cents per pound, up from 36.7 in August.

Wheat prices, still being pressed up by heavy export demand, averaged $4.62 per bushel on the farm, compared with $4.45 in August.

The September price for fluid milk sold to the public was up 46 cents per hundredweight to $7.92.

Meanwhile, what farmers must pay to meet expenses dropped two-thirds of one per cent but still averaged 17 per cent higher than in September last year.

The drop in commodity prices, with the slight reduction in expenses, caused the parity ratio to dip to 95 per cent from a 21-year high of 102 per cent in August.

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

For 20 years I have lived in constant dread of my husband's psychological problems. He has suffered from periods of severe depression followed by other periods of uncontrolled excitement. Someone recently told me that a new drug is available for this heart-breaking condition. What is it? Has it been tested? Is it completely safe?

Mrs. R.Y., N.J.

Dear Mrs. Y.:

The problem of the manic depressive personality has baffled doctors for decades. The social and the economic upheavals caused by this difficult type of psychotic disorder are vast.

Families have had to predicate their entire lives on this condition, which changes unexpectedly from time to time.

There are many complex variations of the manic depressive personality. Under the very eyes of observers there can be a rapid change of personality. An enthusiastic person may be converted into a depressed one with little or no provocation. The control of this difficult problem has taxed the capacity of psychiatrists until the introduction of the new drug Lithium. I assume this is the drug you refer to.

Lithium is now considered to be a drug of extreme value in the treatment and control of many cases of manic depressive psychosis. Dr. Ronald R. Fieve of the New York State Psychiatric Institute has had vast experience with patients who have not responded to other forms of treatment. Dr. Fieve reports that more than 80 per cent of his patients have responded favorably to Lithium. He states "Lithium carbonate really can be called the first preventive drug available in psychiatry."

In a recent address to a medical convention, Dr. Fieve deplored the fact that only a relatively insignificant number of cases of manic depressive disorder are at present being treated with this valuable drug. Dr. Fieve rightfully asked "why?"

There may be those doctors who, as yet, are not completely enthusiastic about the drug's value. It is hoped that a large series of cases will be studied so that there will be no equivocation about its value.

What foods are best used for people who need a high residue for constipation?

Mr. V.L.J., Tenn.

Dear Mr. J.:

A high residue diet is sometimes suggested for patients to stimulate the muscular lining of the intestinal tract.

When intestinal movement is sluggish, constipation may occur. Along with six to eight glasses of water a day, it is suggested that the foods be bulky and contain a high content of cellulose. This is found to be abundant in most vegetables and fruits.

Fruit, stewed fruit and whole grained cereals and bread are important. All kinds of meat, fish and fowl are permitted. Rice, potatoes and vegetables can be used without any special limitation.

Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Many of the conditions that can lead to a rash of corporate takeovers are present in the economy, but an additional element makes them unlikely and maybe impossible.

Hundreds of companies are weak and appear easy candidates for being swallowed by larger corporate animals. But the extra ingredient is that those larger firms are too weak to do so.

A major accounting firm, Coopers & Lybrand, has issued a reminder to its clients that lists the major characteristics of being a potential target.

The first of these is a low price-earnings ratio, a common problem today. Hundreds of companies are complaining that the price of their shares is only nine or 10 times earnings, when the more normal times it might be 12 to 18.

In many instances, the total value of shares is less than book value, which means the acquiring company obtains a gift. A sampling of 81 target firms from 1956 to 1965 showed 54 per cent had inordinately low market prices.

Poor performance and declining earnings, another common complaint, also was listed as a danger signal, especially if it appears to result from poor management. An enterprising competitor might feel it can raise earnings quickly and make itself an easy bundle.

A moribund investment policy, characterized by surplus liquid assets, is another telltale sign. An acquisition-minded company looks upon such assets as a potential homebuyer would look upon a property that had an attic full of gold coins.

In some instances, the takeover of such properties is amazingly easy. The potential buyer simply makes a tempting offer to shareholders in the company and finances the purchase with the company's funds.

Such a takeover is made easier if the company's shares are concentrated in relatively few hands, as are the shares of many companies today.

Unused debt capacity is roughly equivalent to having surplus liquid assets, since debt can be used as effectively as cash by an acquiring company that has set its sights on even greater growth.

While many American companies with a reputation for takeovers are stymied temporarily by their own depressed price-earnings ratios, European companies are stepping up their activities in the United States.

Cash-rich because of the enormous outflow of dollars during the past 20 years, they are able to step in with relatively lush offers to shareholders.

Because of their vulnerable condition, many American companies have embarked on a program of arousing the enthusiasm of individual investors, who largely have been absent from the market during the past two or three years.

The theory is that there are millions of potential investors around the country who could be induced into the market, helping boost prices and lessening the possibility of a takeover.

Perry County Brick Factory To Close Doors

SOMERSET, Ohio (AP)—A railroad closing and air pollution problems are forcing the shutdown of a 60-year-old brick factory, the only industry in this small Perry County village.

The plant is owned by the Belden Brick Co. of Canton, which says it will close the plant by the end of the year. It employs 60 persons.

Belden President William H. Belden said the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad's decision to close its 28-mile branch line to Somerset was the last straw. The factory's last rail shipment was made Aug. 15.

He said the factory's six kilns burn coal and that it also was facing air pollution problems. But he said no natural gas was available and that it would have been impossible to add pollution control equipment to the factory's 74 smokestacks.

Inchworms have legs only on the front and back segments of their bodies, which explains their looping fashion of moving.

The Reagan Push

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

Governor Ronald Reagan of California could be the shoo-in for conservative support at the 1976 Republican National convention provided one thing happens: his Proposition One, which would cut the total of personal state income taxes from 8.3 per cent to 7 per cent over the next 15 years, thus saving Californians $118 billion, must win in a referendum this coming November 6.

Some 150 conservative leaders (many of whom prefer to be called libertarians) met at the Skyline Lodge in Washington, D. C., last week to take stock of a political situation that is making it difficult for most Republican aspirants to the Presidency. It was easy to see that all of the politicians who are connected in any way whatsoever with Watergate, whether pro-Nixon or anti-Nixon, have unforgiving conservative enemies. Furthermore, Vice President Spiro Agnew, innocent of Maryland scandal though he may be, is at best a deflected possibility. Nixon is not being trusted to choose a Crown Prince. So who is available? It could be John B. Connally of Texas making it on his own or Nelson Rockefeller of New York, but what are their issues? People no longer like politicians as such, so charisma and large pocket books are no longer what they were in John F. Kennedy's time.

The buzz-buzz at the conservatives' meeting most assuredly reflected the foregoing analysis. No poll was taken, but the big question was "When does the Reagan push begin?" Reagan has grabbed the tax issue, which has a greater potential than his still youthful smile. His partisans from California, with the November 6 referendum to hurdle, said "wait." They are hoping for a big success on November 6, and if the expected victory comes, Reagan, far more than Connally or Rockefeller or Senators Howard Baker and Charles Percy, will be the man to beat.

The Reagan tax plan has quirks, but in essence it is simple. Even at a lower income tax rate the total tax take in California is bound to increase over the years with population growth and rising personal incomes. So the return to the taxpayers of some 20 per cent of 1973 income taxes, voted by the Legislature when some 586,000 valid signatures put Proposition One on the November ballot, will hardly deprive the state government of a needed surplus. The Reagan idea is to put the 1973 tax cut permanently into the State Constitution. People with incomes of $4,000 a year or less would be exempted from income taxes. So would families with $8,000 or less. The rest could count on the slowly declining rate.

Some of the "special interests" — teachers' associations, the "educational lobby," some of the labor unions — try to conjure up dire specters if the Reagan lid on income tax rates becomes part of the State Constitution. But the whole business has been carefully worked out, and special interests objections are by no means monolithic. There would be a State emergency fund provided for "unforeseen needs." The State would not be allowed to shift services to local government without paying for them. Programs for improving the environment and giving aid to education and public safety would not be permitted to fall below current levels. There would be no interference with federal revenue-sharing.

Nor would the lid on income taxes put the government into any unbearable straitjacket. The "emergency fund" would, on Reagan's estimation, come to two-tenths of one per cent of total personal income. If an emergency situation were to exhaust the reserve, the legislature could, by a two-thirds vote and with the concurrence of the Governor, impose a temporary tax increase that would last until the next general election, when it could be continued or canceled by vote of the people. Any legislative demands for new spending programs that might bust income tax ceilings would also require popular sanction at the polls on election day.

If the tax revolt is as real as Reagan thinks, and if individuals are alive to their opportunity to keep special interest politicians from raiding their bank accounts, November 6 in California could mark a genuine turn in history. And a big victory for the taxpayers in California would surely throw the Reagan Presidential push into a roaring high.

Farm Prices Drop Sharply In Month

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department's index of farm prices dropped eight per cent in the month ended Sept. 15, the biggest decline in more than 25 years.

Although much of the drop was due to sharply lower prices for livestock—as a group down 14 per cent from August records—the Crop Reporting Board listed declines for a number of other important commodities Friday.

Wheat, cotton and milk were among those going up since mid-August, while soybeans and corn joined the losers.

However, the over-all price index still was 48 per cent above a year earlier. In August, it had jumped a record 20 per cent from July.

Cattle prices averaged $47.50 per hundredweight, down from the all-time high of $51.70 in August. That price is based on what farmers get for all animals sold for beef, whether old canner cows or prime steers.

Hogs were down to $43.80 per hundredweight, from the record of $56.50 in August.

Other declines from August included: corn $2.15 per bushel, down from $2.68; soybeans $5.81 per bushel, down from $8.99; lambs $33.10 per hun-dredweight, down from $42.60; and broilers 30.3 cents per pound, down from 37.8.

Cotton at the farm averaged 44.6 cents per pound, up from 36.7 in August.

Wheat prices, still being pressed up by heavy export demand, averaged $4.62 per bushel on the farm, compared with $4.45 in August.

The September price for fluid milk sold to the public was up 46 cents per hundredweight to $7.92.

Meanwhile, what farmers must pay to meet expenses dropped two-thirds of one per cent but still averaged 17 per cent higher than in September last year.

The drop in commodity prices, with the slight reduction in expenses, caused the parity ratio to dip to 95 per cent from a 21-year high of 102 per cent in August.

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

For 20 years I have lived in constant dread of my husband's psychological problems. He has suffered from periods of severe depression followed by other periods of uncontrolled excitement. Someone recently told me that a new drug is available for this heart-breaking condition. What is it? Has it been tested? Is it completely safe?

Mrs. R.Y., N.J.

Dear Mrs. Y.:

The problem of the manic-depressive personality has baffled doctors for decades. The social and the economic upheavals caused by this difficult type of psychotic disorder are vast.

Families have had to predicate their entire lives on this condition, which changes unexpectedly from time to time.

There are many complex variations of the manic-depressive personality. Under the very eyes of observers there can be a rapid change of personality. An enthusiastic person may be converted into a depressed one with little or no provocation. The control of this difficult problem has taxed the capacity of psychiatrists until the introduction of the new drug Lithium. I assume this is the drug you refer to.

Lithium is now considered to be a drug of extreme value in the treatment and control of many cases of manic-depressive psychosis. Dr. Ronald R. Fieve of the New York State Psychiatric Institute has had vast experience with patients who have not responded to other forms of treatment. Dr. Fieve reports that more than 80 per cent of his patients have responded favorably to Lithium. He states "Lithium carbonate really can be called the first preventive drug available in psychiatry."

In a recent address to a medical convention, Dr. Fieve deplored the fact that only a relatively insignificant number of cases of manic-depressive disorder are at present being treated with this valuable drug. Dr. Fieve rightfully asked "why?"

There may be those doctors who, as yet, are not completely enthusiastic about the drug's value. It is hoped that a large series of cases will be studied so that there will be no equivocation about its value.

What foods are best used for people who need a high residue for constipation?

Mr. V.L.J., Tenn.

Dear Mr. J.:

A high residue diet is sometimes suggested for patients to stimulate the muscular lining of the intestinal tract.

When intestinal movement is sluggish, constipation may occur. Along with six to eight glasses of water a day, it is suggested that the foods be bulky and contain a high content of cellulose. This is found to be abundant in most vegetables and fruits.

Fruit, stewed fruit and whole grained cereals and bread are important. All kinds of meat, fish and fowl are permitted. Rice, potatoes and vegetables can be used without any special limitation.

Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Many of the conditions that can lead to a rash of corporate takeovers are present in the economy, but an additional element makes them unlikely and maybe impossible.

Hundreds of companies are weak and appear easy candidates for being swallowed by larger corporate animals. But the extra ingredient is that those larger firms are too weak to do so.

A major accounting firm, Coopers & Lybrand, has issued a reminder to its clients that lists the major characteristics of being a potential target.

The first of these is a low price-earnings ratio, a common problem today. Hundreds of companies are complaining that the price of their shares is only nine or 10 times earnings, when the more normal times it might be 12 to 18.

In many instances, the total value of shares is less than book value, which means the acquiring company obtains a gift. A sampling of 81 target firms from 1956 to 1965 showed 54 per cent had inordinately low market prices.

Poor performance and declining earnings, another common complaint, also was listed as a danger signal, especially if it appears to result from poor management. An enterprising competitor might feel it can raise earnings quickly and make itself an easy bundle.

A moribund investment policy, characterized by surplus liquid assets, is another telltale sign. An acquisition-minded company looks upon such assets as a potential homebuyer would look upon a property that had an attic full of gold coins.

In some instances, the takeover of such properties is amazingly easy. The potential buyer simply makes a tempting offer to shareholders in the company and finances the purchase with the company's funds.

Such a takeover is made easier if the company's shares are concentrated in relatively few hands, as are the shares of many companies today.

Unused debt capacity is roughly equivalent to having surplus liquid assets, since debt can be used as effectively as cash by an acquiring company that has set its sights on even greater growth. While many American companies with a reputation for takeovers are stymied temporarily by their own depressed price-earnings ratios, European companies are stepping up their activities in the United States.

Cash-rich because of the enormous outflow of dollars during the past 20 years, they are able to step in with relatively lush offers to shareholders.

Because of their vulnerable condition, many American companies have embarked on a program of arousing the enthusiasm of individual investors, who largely have been absent from the market during the past two or three years.

The theory is that there are millions of potential investors around the country who could be induced into the market, helping boost prices and lessening the possibility of a takeover.

Perry County Brick Factory To Close Doors

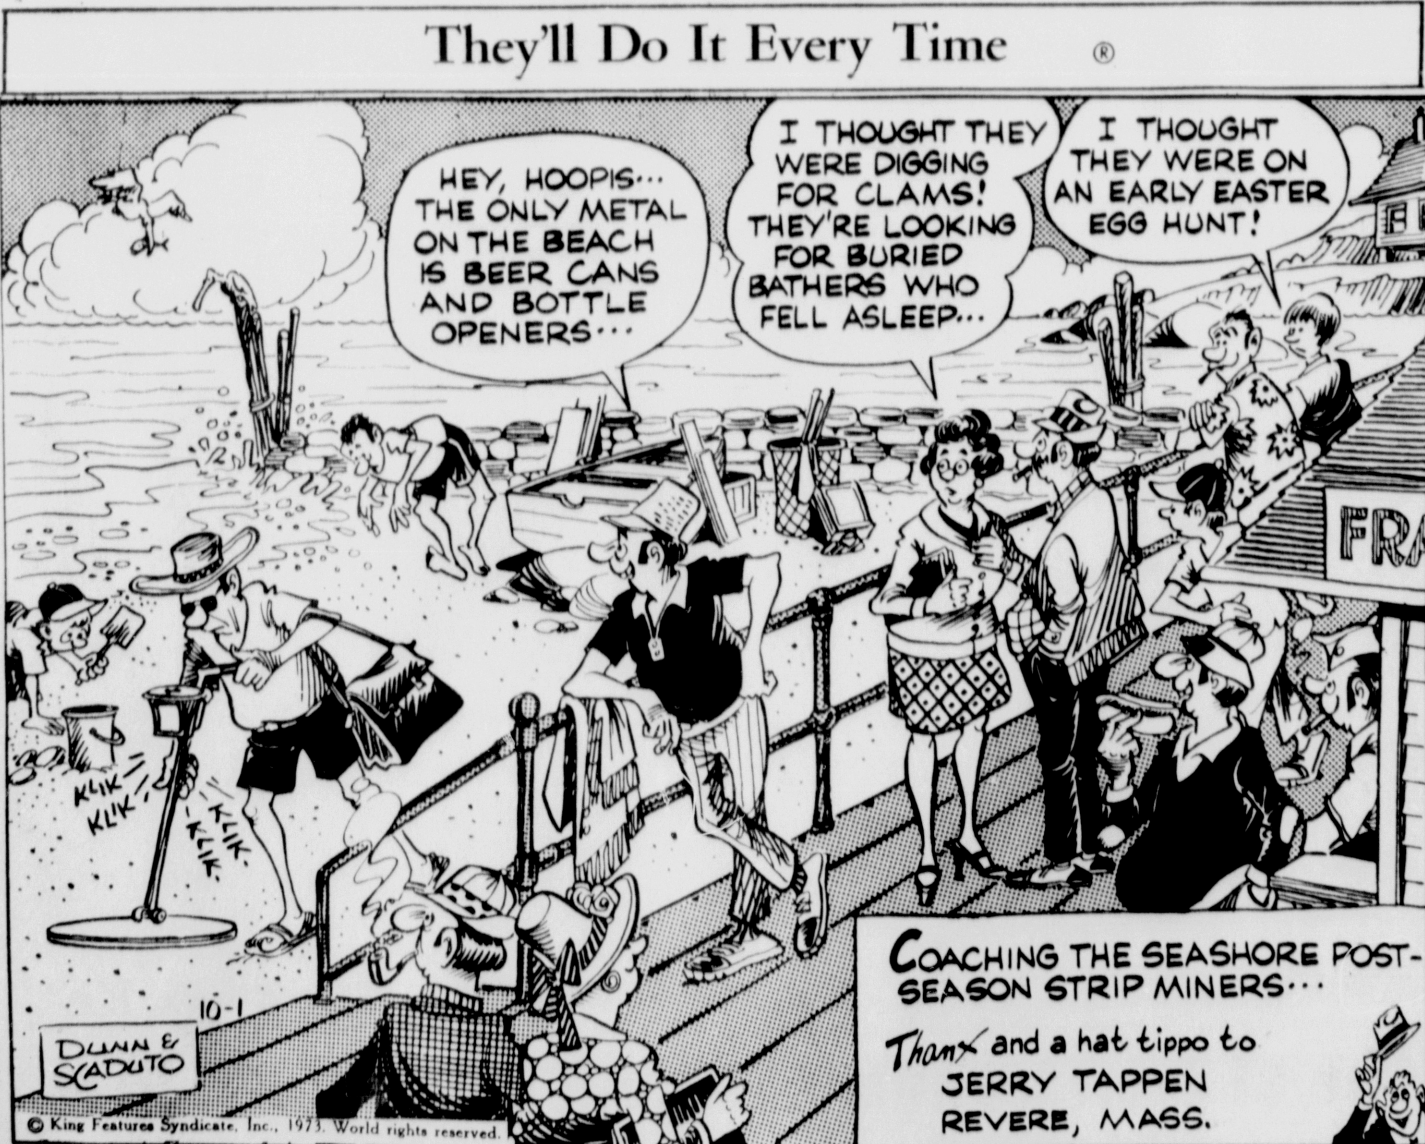

SOMERSET, Ohio (AP) — A railroad closing and air pollution problems are forcing the shutdown of a 60-year-old brick factory, the only industry in this small Perry County village.

The plant is owned by the Belden Brick Co. of Canton, which says it will close the plant by the end of the year. It employs 60 persons.

Belden President William H. Belden said the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad's decision to close its 28-mile branch line to Somerset was the last straw. The factory's last rail shipment was made Aug. 15.

He said the factory's six kilns burn coal and that it also was facing air pollution problems. But he said no natural gas was available and that it would have been impossible to add pollution control equipment to the factory's 74 smokestacks.

Service Families Feel Dollar Pinch

ANSBACH, Germany (AP) — Pinched by the devaluation of the dollar, wives of many GIs in West Germany are working in local factories to give the family a second paycheck.

"It was a question of me going to work or going back to the States," said one wife. "We just couldn't make it any more on GI pay."

The dollar's purchasing power has dropped 25 per cent this year. It was worth 3.22 marks in January; now it is worth 2.41. Hardest hit are the low-ranking soldiers, who aren't eligible for army housing for their families and often hand over half their pay to German landlords.

"When my husband was assigned to Germany, I never thought I would end up working in a German factory," said Diane Earwood of New Lexington, Ohio, the wife of a helicopter crew chief. "The work is repetitious, but people are friendly and the pay is good."

Ku Klux Klan Rites Unite 2 Ohioans

LEWISBURG, Ohio (AP) — Forty-three-year-old Marvin Miller, a toolmaker from Lockbourne, married Clarrie Hill, a 37-year-old warehouse worker from Columbus, in a Ku Klux Klan ceremony because he doesn't want a divorce.

Both are now married for the third time. The Klan doesn't recognize divorce.

The pair took vows shortly after dark Saturday following a six week courtship. The bride wore a full-length, white gown. The groom also wore the traditional white robe and hood.

The ceremony was held outside on a farm about a mile west of Lewisburg in southwestern Ohio. It was the highlight of a Klan rally.

Forty robed Klansmen— hands folded across their chests—sat facing a makeshift altar.

Standing atop a flatbed truck trimmed with red, white and blue bunting while "The Old Rugged Cross" blared through a loud speaker, the bride and groom exchanged vows before the Rev. Robert Niles of Detroit, who claims to be the Klan's national chaplain.

For the final portion of the ritual, a 20-foot wooden cross soaked in kerosene was set afire followed by traditional Baptist practices.

Miller said he is a Klansman because the Klan is a sacred order. "I ain't against Negroes, Catholics, Jews or anyone. But I am against inter-racial marriages. That's corruption of the flesh," he said.

The pair will honeymoon later in the winter.

minimum of about $11 a day, after deductions, on the assembly line at the Bosch automobile components factory in this north Bavarian town.

PLUM OUT OF LUCK

DEAR ABBY: I laughed (with tears in my eyes) when I read about the doctor's wife who couldn't get her husband's ear long enough to tell him what was wrong with her.

My wife is a masseuse, and a darned good one. In fact, she's trained in physical therapy, but every time I ask her to give me a rub, she tells me she's tired.

NO RUBS IN ROCHESTER

DEAR ABBY: Tell the doctor's wife she has company. My husband is a professional photographer. He photographed our first child when she was one hour old. And he took thousands of pictures of that little girl until she was about 4.

Our second baby came along and my husband didn't go quite as crazy with his camera over No. 2, but we do have some pictures of him. No. 3 was lucky to get her picture taken on her fifth birthday.

Now I have to start nagging him in July to get a family picture for our Christmas cards.

PHOTOGRAPHER'S WIFE

DEAR ABBY: "The shoemaker's children always go barefoot," applied to me, too. Only my husband is a grocer. I had to plead for groceries, which we, as the owners of the store, may take home at wholesale prices. But believe it or not, our cupboards were usually bare.

My own children didn't see much of their father because he was always too busy at the store to give them much time.

It took a complete nervous breakdown for me to get the time and attention from my husband I needed for so many years.

Service Families Feel Dollar Pinch

ANSBACH, Germany (AP) — Pinched by the devaluation of the dollar, wives of many GIs in West Germany are working in local factories to give the family a second paycheck.

"It was a question of me going to work or going back to the States," said one wife. "We just couldn't make it any more on GI pay."

The dollar's purchasing power has dropped 25 per cent this year. It was worth 3.22 marks in January; now it is worth 2.41. Hardest hit are the low-ranking soldiers, who aren't eligible for army housing for their families and often hand over half their pay to German landlords.

"When my husband was assigned to Germany, I never thought I would end up working in a German factory," said Diane Earwood of New Lexington, Ohio, the wife of a helicopter crew chief. "The work is repetitious, but people are friendly and the pay is good."

Ku Klux Klan Rites Unite 2 Ohioans

LEWISBURG, Ohio (AP) — Forty-three-year-old Marvin Miller, a toolmaker from Lockbourne, married Clarice Hill, a 37-year-old warehouse worker from Columbus, in a Ku Klux Klan ceremony because he doesn't want a divorce.

Both are now married for the third time. The Klan doesn't recognize divorce.

The pair took vows shortly after dark Saturday following a six week courtship. The bride wore a full-length, white gown. The groom also wore the traditional white robe and hood.

The ceremony was held outside on a farm about a mile west of Lewisburg in southwestern Ohio. It was the highlight of a Klan rally.

Forty robed Klansmen— hands folded across their chests—sat facing a makeshift altar.

Standing atop a flatbed truck trimmed with red, white and blue bunting while "The Old Rugged Cross" blared through a loud speaker, the bride and groom exchanged vows before the Rev. Robert Niles of Detroit, who claims to be the Klan's national chaplain.

For the final portion of the ritual, a 20-foot wooden cross soaked in kerosene was set afire followed by traditional Baptist practices.

Miller said he is a Klansman because the Klan is a sacred order.

"I ain't against Negroes, Catholics, Jews or anyone. But I am against inter-racial marriages. That's corruption of the flesh," he said.

The pair will honeymoon later in the winter.

minimum of about $11 a day, after deductions, on the assembly line at the Bosch automobile components factory in this north Bavarian town.

Forty other GI wives work in an Ansbach sausage plant. Scores more have found work in offices and factories in Schweinfurt, Wuerzburg and Nuernberg.

The American women have joined 2.5 million South European migrants who are keeping factories operating in laborshort Germany.

"For us, the dollar devaluation came at a favorable time," said Johannes Geibel, who manages the Bosch factory. "We were expanding the work force to build relay switches for seat belts on export-model Volkswagens and Fords."

"The Americans were hired and trained for the new assembly line. We are very satisfied. The Americans work as well as our other employees."

The American women work an eight-hour day — from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. or from 3 p.m. to 11 — and earn $2.05 an hour plus incentive bonuses. About 20 per cent is withheld for German income taxes and another 13 per cent for health and unemployment insurance and pension.

"I started here three months ago. I'm working to help my husband," said Evelyn Jackson, 29, of Chicago. "We have government housing because my husband is a career soldier. But we need marks because we buy food and clothing in German stores."

Peggy Clark of Birmingham, Ala., a trained telephone operator, is assembling MercedesBenz blinker-light components for $55 a week because her application for an Army phone job was turned down.

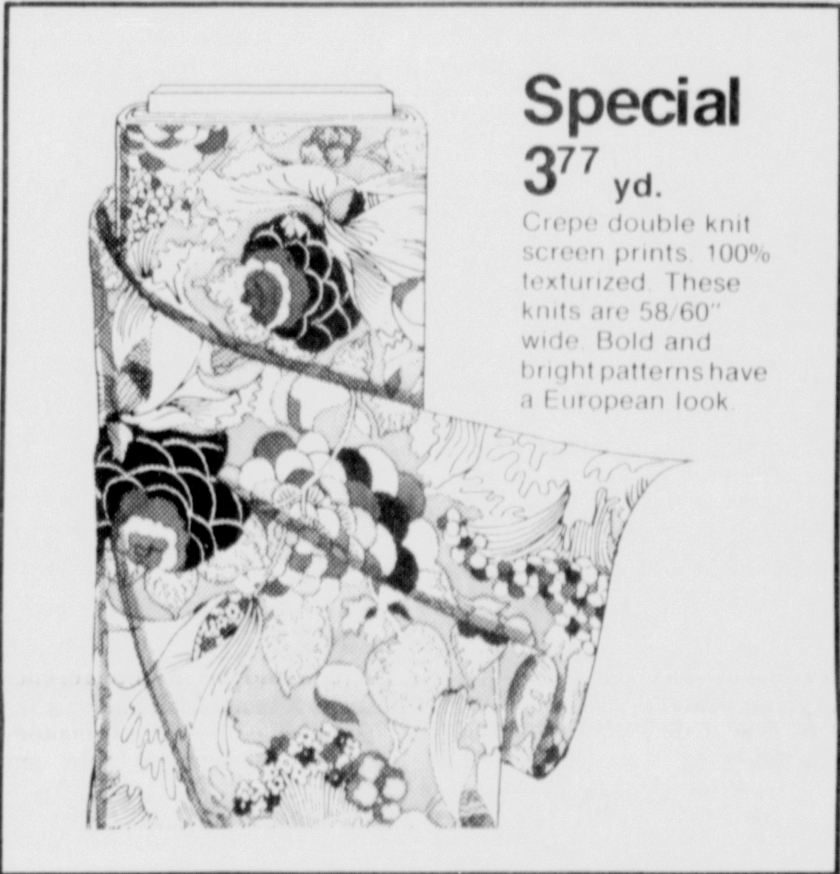

"The Army doesn't have enough jobs for dependent wives," said Karen Jackson, 21, the wife of a private first class from Moore, Okla. "I heard about a bookstore job paying $150 a month, but you have to keep inventory and put up with a lot of smart-talking soldiers."

A total sum of $1.60 will come out of these dues and will go into the treasurer of the General and Ohio Federation of Women's Club's. The balance is to be kept by the local club. The name given the club was the Ashville Junior Women's Club and it was voted to meet the fourth Monday of each month at 8 p.m.

Following the acception of the by-laws the group voted to hold election of officers from the floor, instead of waiting until the next meeting, so there would be less delay in getting the club year started and new officers and club members could attend the Central Ohio River District Fall Conference meeting to be held Oct. 10th at Oak Hill.

Circleville Branch of American Assn. of University Women held its September meeting Tuesday in the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. James Leckrone presented a filmstrip entitled "This Ad Insults Women" narrated by Arlene Francis. The film pointed out how the media, TV, newspapers, magazines etc. exploited women and influenced society about ideas concerning women. At the end of the film Mrs. Leckrone mentioned that today the media is trying to include the contributions of women in society and not always present women as second best to men. She also pointed out that today many women are in the media as broadcasters, writers ect. and this is helping women's image.

A total sum of $1.60 will come out of these dues and will go into the treasurer of the General and Ohio Federation of Women's Club's. The balance is to be kept by the local club. The name given the club was the Ashville Junior Women's Club and it was voted to meet the fourth Monday of each month at 8 p.m.

Following the acception of the by-laws the group voted to hold election of officers from the floor, instead of waiting until the next meeting, so there would be less delay in getting the club year started and new officers and club members could attend the Central Ohio River District Fall Conference meeting to be held Oct. 10th at Oak Hill.

Rail Service Across Ohio Up To State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—If Ohio wants rail passenger service between Cincinnati and Cleveland, state officials should take the lead, a spokesman for Amtrak said Sunday.

David Watts, director of Amtrak's state and local affairs office in Washington, said the national rail passenger corporation, will not expend a large amount of money to get the service started.

He suggested that Ohio follow the lead of other states who have initiated inter-urban rail service. He said Illinois, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts have relied on state and local funding.

"What happens in Ohio is largely up to Ohio," he said.

A north-south route linking Cleveland, Columbus and Cincinnati "would be a logical first step in an inter-urban transit system," Watts said. The line has the "highest potential" of all possible routes in the state, he added.

A rail line presently connects Cleveland, Wellington, Shelby, Crestline, Galion, Delaware, Columbus, Springfield, Dayton, Middletown and Cincinnati.

The Public Utilities Commission of Ohio plans to inspect the Penn Central Railroad line running through the cities. The commission wants to determine how much work and money it will take to get the route ready for regular runs.

Busing Plan In Memphis Under Fire

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — The 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals was scheduled today to hear arguments by a Memphis, Tenn. group which contends a court-approved busing plan for Memphis schools will not achieve desegregation fast enough.

The appeal, brought by Deborah A. Northcross and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, maintains the latest plan handed down in May leaves more than 21,000 black students in all-black schools.

Miss Northcross first filed suit against the Memphis school board 10 years ago.

Attorneys for Miss Northcross contend that the courts should approve a "complete" desegregation plan that would require more extensive busing of students at Memphis' schools and extend maximum travel time of 52 minutes.

In briefs filed last month they said, that all minorities should be represented in all schools. The current "May" plan requires 39,000 pupils be bused daily and more one-way busing of black students to all-white areas than the reverse.

The current plan, approved in U.S. District Court in Tennessee in May, set 45 minutes for maximum student travel time.

Columbus Girl New Beauty Queen

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A 19-year-old junior English major at Ohio Northern University has been crowned Miss Columbus, Ohio.

Julie Ann Barrett of Columbus won the title Saturday after she was selected from 10 finalists by a panel of five judges.

The winner receives a $300 scholarship and about $500 in prizes from Columbus merchants. Pageant officials said she will represent the city in Columbus Day USA activities Oct. 5-8.

Twister Damage Cleared Away

BURLINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Most of the debris left by a tornado in Boone County Saturday has been cleared away.

Damage was estimated Sunday at between $75,000 and $100,000 by Ned Kleier, Burlington Fire Department safety officer.

There were no serious injuries reported following the twister that cut a 500-foot swath for a quarter mile. About 12 homes suffered roof, window and structural damage. Several barns, cars and garages were destroyed.

Bancorporation Urges Reduction Of Prime Rate

Theodore R. Saker, president of America Bancorporation, a Columbus-based bank holding company, today announced a reduction in several affiliate banks' prime loan rate from 10 per cent to 9½ per cent.

Saker urged affiliate banks to assume leadership in returning to a realistic rate structure.

The Dime Bank in Washington County, The Farmers State Bank, Henry County, The Huntsville State Bank, Logan County, and The Continental Bank, Putnam County, joined Saker in announcing the reduction to 9½ per cent for rates charged to large corporate borrowers.

Sanborn D. Wood, vice-president of the state-wide bank holding company predicted that other banks across the country will lower their rates during the next several weeks. Wood stated that loan demand remains strong, but that money market rates have dropped. During the past several weeks, 13-week Treasury Bill rates have dropped from over 9 per cent to 7 per cent.

Other American Bancorporation affiliate banks were considering a similar move. Those banks include The Ross County National Bank in Ross County, and The Harpster Bank, Wyandot County.

Saker explained that the prime corporate rate is eventually reflected in the rates charged small businesses and consumers. He said, "I believe in our monetary system, and in the essential good-sense to today's consumer, and I do not believe that today's consumer will tolerate current excessive rates."

American Bancorporation recently announced plans to acquire the American Bank of Central Ohio in Franklin and Pickaway counties, and The Morristown Bank, Belmont County. Those proposals are pending before regulatory authorities. If approved, American Bancorporation affiliate banks will operate in eight Ohio counties which account for a population of 1.2 million, or about 10 per cent of Ohio's 10.6 million population.

SCS Conservationist Warns Against 'Great Plow-Up'

A high U.S.D.A. Official warns against land exploitation in current push for higher farm production, and calls on Soil Conservation Service to step up conservation assistance to landowners, according to Don Archer, District Conservationist, Soil Conservation Service, cooperating with the Pickaway Soil and Water Conservation District.

"This is no time to have a Great Plow-Up followed by a Great Wash-Away," said Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Robert W. Long in a speech last week before the Iowa Association of Soil Conservation District Commissioners. He warned that the nation faces a challenge to "produce and protect" if it is to avoid another Dust Bowl and other serious land damage.

"Right now," he stated, "careless use or short-range exploitation of land to produce more and earn more could bring about a repetition of the staggering soil and water problems that the nation faced earlier in this century."

"In the Pickaway Soil and Water Conservation District, 43,400 acres have a soil erosion hazard. When more land is put into raw crops farmers should use soil survey information to select appropriate acreage, develop conservation plans or update existing plans, apply needed conservation measures on a time schedule, and use modern farming practices—such as minimum tillage—to keep erosion at a minimum," Archer said. To help carry out these objectives Soil Conservation Service field personnel will work part of their time working with landowners on conservation plans and practices to protect the land while crop production is increased," according to Archer.

In the Great Plains, climate gangs up on man in about a 20-year cycle; it's about time now for another series of dry years when soil erosion hazards are great. Other parts of the country, particularly the Southeast, get enough rainfall and heavy storms every year to threaten unprotected soil.

Mets Need 1 For Pennant

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Mets will have to wait another day and Atlanta's Hank Aaron will have to wait another season. It was Never On Sunday for both baseball phenomena.

The Mets failed to win the National League East pennant after splitting a doubleheader with the Chicago Cubs and Aaron missed a chance to tie Babe Ruth's famous home run mark in a busy final Sunday.

"We're going to win this thing because we've got the pitching and the defense," said New York left fielder

Cleon Jones after the Mets clinched at least a tie for the East flag with a 9-2 victory in Sunday's second game. The Mets lost the opener 1-0.

The Mets, once 12 games behind in last place this season, can win the elusive pennant today by beating the Cubs in one game of their makeup doubleheader. They're counting on ace Tom Seaver in the opener.

The second-place St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Philadelphia Phillies 3-1 on the last day of their regular season and moved within one game of the top.

The third-place Pittsburgh Pirates also stayed alive, but just barely, with a 10-2 romp over the Montreal Expos. The Pirates also have a makeup date today, playing the San Diego Padres at home.

While all this madness was going on, Aaron took some of the play away from the hottest pennant race in National League history.

The Atlanta star, one shy of Ruth's monumental career home run total of 714, had four opportunities to match the record but didn't make it. He singled three times in four appearances as the Braves lost a 5-3 decision to the Houston Astros.

In the only other National League game, the San Francisco Giants beat the Cincinnati Reds 4-3.

Perez ended Ron Bryant's bid with two out in the seventh inning with his 27th homer. The Reds chipped away at San Francisco's 4-0 lead, but had to settle for 99 victories as the 1973 regular season ended.

A crowd of 50,776 sent the Reds' attendance over the two million mark for the first time in the club's 105-year history.

Bryant, a chunky righthander making his 39th start, said he felt his chances for the Cy Young Award might be improved if he beat one of his chief challengers, Cincinnati's Jack Billingham, a 19-game winner who leads the league with seven shutouts.

"I've been watching the papers. I know that some guys might have some better statistics than me, but nobody else has 20 wins.

"So I figured I didn't have anything to lose," said Bryant, who becomes only the first National League pitcher in history to win 20 or more games without throwing a shutout. The last time it was done was in 1928.

Bobby Bonds drove in three of the Giants' runs with his 39th homer and a single.

Billingham, 19-10, was lifted for pinchhitter Hal King with the bases loaded in the seventh and stalked directly to the shower.

Bristling over being yanked, Billingham said, "I wanted to walk off the mound in the ninth inning as a winner or a loser. I liked the chances better of me making an out and Rose leading off the next inning better than getting the big hit there."

Bengals Edge Chargers

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Essex Johnson, only 5 feet 9, claims he's sometimes hard to find among the pro football giants.

But the San Diego Chargers got a good look at the Cincinnati flash Sunday. From behind.

Johnson slipped behind San Diego

defenders to catch two passes from Ken Anderson and raced to touchdowns of 78 and 38 yards. He also rushed for 121 yards in 21 carries, running his three game total to 342 yards, as the Bengals beat the Chargers 20-13.

"He's our fastest man," said Cincinnati Coach Paul Brown, whose squad also includes former national collegiate sprint champion Isaac Curtis.

"He also has the ability to rise to the occasion," Brown said.

Johnson and rookie fullback Charles "Bobby" Clark both rose to the occasion Sunday after John Unitas, who threw for 215 yards and passed the 40,000 yard mark for his career, brought the Chargers to within seven points with an eight yard pass to Bob Thomas.

San Diego still had a chance with 6:51 to play, but Clark ground out two first downs for the Bengals, 2-1, and Johnson dashed 29 yards for a third, killing all but 47 seconds. Unitas' last desperate pass was then intercepted.

"If the line has a good day, the back has a good day." With that, Mercury Morris said it all.

The Miami line had a great day...and so did the scrappy little running back for the Dolphins who so often has had to take a back seat to his running mates, Larry Csonka and Jim Kiick.

He scampered for three touchdowns and a team-record 197 yards to lead Miami over the New England Patriots 44-23 Sunday in National Football League play.

"I haven't had those kind of holes since I was in college," said Morris, who shattered the Dolphins' club rushing record, Abner Haynes' 151 yards.

In Sunday's other NFL games, Pittsburgh thrashed Houston 36-7, Los Angeles rocked San Francisco 40-20, Minnesota mauled Green Bay 11-3, Dallas clouded St. Louis 45-10, Cleveland edged the New York Giants 12-10, Buffalo tripped the New York Jets 9-7, Kansas City upset Oakland 16-3, Baltimore beat New Orleans 14-10, Chicago beat Denver 33-14, Cincinnati topped San Diego 20-13 and Washington belted Philadelphia 28-7. Atlanta is at Detroit tonight.

Did Arkansas Have 12 Men Against Iowa?

By HERSHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Has Southern California's reign as king of college football come to an end? And if the Trojans are still No. 1, can Oklahoma, which tied them 7-7 Saturday night, be far behind?

Those are the big questions this week, but Coach Earle Bruce of Iowa State has still another puzzler: Did Arkansas have 12 men on the field when it scored the decisive touchdown in a 21-19 victory?

"They're not No. 1," said Oklahoma quarterback Steve Davis, whose two-yard touchdown run in the third period enabled the eighth-ranked Sooners to end Southern Cal's 14-game winning streak.

"We're just not very good," said Southern Cal coach John McKay. "I hate to say it. I thought if we held them to one touchdown we could win it. We didn't. We haven't been very good offensively all year and we finally played a good defensive team."

Iowa State, meanwhile, was wondering how Arkansas could line up in a wishbone formation, which requires three set backs, and still have a flanker in the slot when Mike Kirkland passed to Jack Ettinger for a third-period touchdown that gave the Razorbacks a 21-13 lead.

"Damn right they had 12 men and everyone knew it but the officials," beefed Bruce. "We noticed it as soon as they broke into the formation."

Arkansas' Frank Broyles said he didn't think the extra man made any difference, but added: "I deeply regret it, but you cannot blame the officials.

Wittenberg Stops Ashland, 24-7

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Wittenberg stole a page from Ashland's success story to end the nationally-ranked Eagles' 14-game college football winning streak.

"They were stronger defensively than we thought," said Coach Fred Martinelli after his No. 7 Ashland powerhouse took a 24-7 drubbing from host Wittenberg Saturday.

Ashland, the national college defensive leader last fall, had not given up a touchdown in nine quarters this season. The Tigers, now 3-0 to Ashland's 3-1 record, held the Eagles to 114 ground yards, intercepted three passes and recovered three fumbles.

"We could have done this last year, but last year we didn't play," Wittenberg Coach Dave Maurer said of a 33-3 loss to Ashland in 1972. "This year we played."

In other major games Saturday, Ohio State rolled over Texas Christian 37-3, Xavier trimmed Marshall 30-28 and Tulsa edged Cincinnati 16-13.

Mid-American Conference action saw Toledo whipping Ohio University 35-8 and Bowling Green beating Western Michigan 31-20, while, playing outside the league, Central Michigan downed Dayton 15-6, Miami defeated South Carolina 13-11 and Kent State was a 17-9 victim of San Diego.

Ohio State used its usual grinding ground attack, with the fleet Cornelius Green and Archie Griffin breaking loose for long gains. Greene scored twice, once on a 72-yard run, and Griffin dashed 68 yards for another TD.

But the victory was expensive for the defending Big Ten champions as Harold "Champ" Henson, the nation's leading scorer last fall, suffered torn left knee ligaments.

Hanson underwent surgery Sunday and is likely to be out for the rest of the season.

Xavier scored its winning touchdown with just 41 seconds remaining on the clock. Fullback Dwight Chapman carried the ball into the end zone from the three-yard-line, where it had been placed after interference was called on Marshall during a pass play that began on the Thundering Herd's 34.

CHS Reserves Rip McClain

Circleville's reserve gridders rolled to a 48-0 win over Greenfield McClain Saturday on the loser's turf.

Alan Underwood led the Roundtown scoring with three touchdowns. He tallied on a 70-yard punt return, a 50-yard pass from Brent Mancini and a three-yard run.

John Payne scored on a three-yard run, Dan Marshall tallied on a 45-yard pass from Phil Roll, Kevin Smith on a seven-yard run and Sam Webb on a 45-yard pass from Roger Halley. Roll kicked six conversions.

Circleville coaches were quite pleased with the defensive unit which kept Greenfield in check throughout the contest.

Circleville is now 4-0 and will host Wilmington 10 a.m. Saturday.

Henson Recuperating From Sunday Surgery

Ohio State Fullback (Champ) Henson is recuperating from surgery performed Sunday for a ligament tear sustained in Saturday's football game with Texas Christian University.

HAROLD HENSON

Champ's father, Raymond Henson, reported today the injury is not as bad as it was first thought. The ligament tear is three to four inches above the knee and surgeons have said that when it heals there should be no weakening of the knee or leg.

Should Ohio State win a return trip to the Rose Bowl this year, Henson should be ready to play. However, it is extremely doubtful he will be able to play anymore regular season games. The cast is expected to be on his leg four to five weeks.

The injury came just before the first quarter ended. Raymond Henson reported that films indicated it may have been a "late hit" that caused the injury.

Champ has scored one touchdown and gained 26 yards rushing in the first quarter. Ohio State Coach Woody Hayes said this was probably the first time he has lost a player of Henson's caliber this early in the season.

The Teays Valley graduate led the nation in scoring last year and had four touchdowns already this season.

Mets Need 1 For Pennant

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Mets will have to wait another day and Atlanta's Hank Aaron will have to wait another season. It was Never On Sunday for both baseball phenomena.

The Mets failed to win the National League East pennant after splitting a doubleheader with the Chicago Cubs and Aaron missed a chance to tie Babe Ruth's famous home run mark in a busy final Sunday.

"We're going to win this thing because we've got the pitching and the defense," said New York left fielder

Cleon Jones after the Mets clinched at least a tie for the East flag with a 9-2 victory in Sunday's second game. The Mets lost the opener 1-0.

The Mets, once 12 games behind in last place this season, can win the elusive pennant today by beating the Cubs in one game of their makeup doubleheader. They're counting on ace Tom Seaver in the opener.

The second-place St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Philadelphia Phillies 3-1 on the last day of their regular season and moved within one game of the top.

The third-place Pittsburgh Pirates also stayed alive, but just barely, with a 10-2 romp over the Montreal Expos. The Pirates also have a makeup date today, playing the San Diego Padres at home.

While all this madness was going on, Aaron took some of the play away from the hottest pennant race in National League history.

The Atlanta star, one shy of Ruth's monumental career home run total of 714, had four opportunities to match the record but didn't make it. He singled three times in four appearances as the Braves lost a 5-3 decision to the Houston Astros.

In the only other National League game, the San Francisco Giants beat the Cincinnati Reds 4-3.

Perez ended Ron Bryant's bid with two out in the seventh inning with his 27th homer. The Reds chipped away at San Francisco's 4-0 lead, but had to settle for 99 victories as the 1973 regular season ended.

A crowd of 50,776 sent the Reds' attendance over the two million mark for the first time in the club's 105-year history.

Bryant, a chunky righthander making his 39th start, said he felt his chances for the Cy Young Award might be improved if he beat one of his chief challengers, Cincinnati's Jack Billingham, a 19-game winner who leads the league with seven shutouts.

"I've been watching the papers. I know that some guys might have some better statistics than me, but nobody else has 20 wins.

"So I figured I didn't have anything to lose," said Bryant, who becomes only the first National League pitcher in history to win 20 or more games without throwing a shutout. The last time it was done was in 1928.

Bobby Bonds drove in three of the Giants' runs with his 39th homer and a single.

Billingham, 19-10, was lifted for pinchhitter Hal King with the bases loaded in the seventh and stalked directly to the shower.

Bristling over being yanked, Billingham said, "I wanted to walk off the mound in the ninth inning as a winner or a loser. I liked the chances better of me making an out and Rose leading off the next inning better than getting the big hit there."

Bengals Edge Chargers

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Essex Johnson, only 5 feet 9, claims he's sometimes hard to find among the pro football giants.

But the San Diego Chargers got a good look at the Cincinnati flash Sunday. From behind.

Johnson slipped behind San Diego

defenders to catch two passes from Ken Anderson and raced to touchdowns of 78 and 38 yards. He also rushed for 121 yards in 21 carries, running his three game total to 342 yards, as the Bengals beat the Chargers 20-13.

"He's our fastest man," said Cincinnati Coach Paul Brown, whose squad also includes former national collegiate sprint champion Isaac Curtis.

"He also has the ability to rise to the occasion," Brown said.

Johnson and rookie fullback Charles "Bobby" Clark both rose to the occasion Sunday after John Unitas, who threw for 215 yards and passed the 40,000 yard mark for his career, brought the Chargers to within seven points with an eight yard pass to Bob Thomas.

San Diego still had a chance with 6:51 to play, but Clark ground out two first downs for the Bengals, 2-1, and Johnson dashed 29 yards for a third, killing all but 47 seconds. Unitas' last desperate pass was then intercepted.

"If the line has a good day, the back has a good day." With that, Mercury Morris said it all.

The Miami line had a great day...and so did the scrappy little running back for the Dolphins who so often has had to take a back seat to his running mates, Larry Csonka and Jim Kiick.

He scampered for three touchdowns and a team-record 197 yards to lead Miami over the New England Patriots 44-23 Sunday in National Football League play.

"I haven't had those kind of holes since I was in college," said Morris, who shattered the Dolphins' club rushing record, Abner Haynes' 151 yards.

In Sunday's other NFL games, Pittsburgh thrashed Houston 36-7, Los Angeles rocked San Francisco 40-20, Minnesota mauled Green Bay 11-3, Dallas clouted St. Louis 45-10, Cleveland edged the New York Giants 12-10, Buffalo tripped the New York Jets 9-7, Kansas City upset Oakland 16-3, Baltimore beat New Orleans 14-10, Chicago beat Denver 33-14, Cincinnati topped San Diego 20-13 and Washington belted Philadelphia 28-7. Atlanta is at Detroit tonight.

Did Arkansas Have 12 Men Against Iowa?

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Has Southern California's reign as king of college football come to an end? And if the Trojans are still No. 1, can Oklahoma, which tied them 7-7 Saturday night, be far behind?

Those are the big questions this week, but Coach Earle Bruce of Iowa State has still another puzzler: Did Arkansas have 12 men on the field when it scored the decisive touchdown in a 21-19 victory?

"They're not No. 1," said Oklahoma quarterback Steve Davis, whose two-yard touchdown run in the third period enabled the eighth-ranked Sooners to end Southern Cal's 14-game winning streak.

"We're just not very good," said Southern Cal coach John McKay. "I hate to say it. I thought if we held them to one touchdown we could win it. We didn't. We haven't been very good offensively all year and we finally played a good defensive team."

Iowa State, meanwhile, was wondering how Arkansas could line up in a wishbone formation, which requires three set backs, and still have a flanker in the slot when Mike Kirkland passed to Jack Ettinger for a third-period touchdown that gave the Razorbacks a 21-13 lead.

"Damn right they had 12 men and everyone knew it but the officials," beefed Bruce. "We noticed it as soon as they broke into the formation."

Arkansas' Frank Broyles said he didn't think the extra man made any difference, but added: "I deeply regret it, but you cannot blame the officials."

Henson Recuperating From Sunday Surgery

Ohio State Fullback (Champ) Henson is recuperating from surgery performed Sunday for a ligament tear sustained in Saturday's football game with Texas Christian University.

HAROLD HENSON

Champ's father, Raymond Henson, reported today the injury is not as bad as it was first thought. The ligament tear is three to four inches above the knee and surgeons have said that when it heals there should be no weakening of the knee or leg.

Should Ohio State win a return trip to the Rose Bowl this year, Henson should be ready to play. However, it is extremely doubtful he will be able to play anymore regular season games. The cast is expected to be on his leg four to five weeks.

The injury came just before the first quarter ended. Raymond Henson reported that films indicated it may have been a "late hit" that caused the injury.

Champ has scored one touchdown and gained 26 yards rushing in the first quarter. Ohio State Coach Woody Hayes said this was probably the first time he has lost a player of Henson's caliber this early in the season.

The Teays Valley graduate led the nation in scoring last year and had four touchdowns already this season.

Wittenberg Stops Ashland, 24-7

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Wittenberg stole a page from Ashland's success story to end the nationally-ranked Eagles' 14-game college football winning streak.

"They were stronger defensively than we thought," said Coach Fred Martelli after his No. 7 Ashland powerhouse took a 24-7 drubbing from host Wittenberg Saturday.

Ashland, the national college defensive leader last fall, had not given up a touchdown in nine quarters this season. The Tigers, now 3-0 to Ashland's 3-1 record, held the Eagles to 114 ground yards, intercepted three passes and recovered three fumbles.

"We could have done this last year, but last year we didn't play," Wittenberg Coach Dave Maurer said of a 33-3 loss to Ashland in 1972. "This year we played."

In other major games Saturday, Ohio State rolled over Texas Christian 37-3, Xavier trimmed Marshall 30-28 and Tulsa edged Cincinnati 16-13.

Mid-American Conference action saw Toledo whipping Ohio University 35-8 and Bowling Green beating Western Michigan 31-20, while, playing outside the league, Central Michigan downed Dayton 15-6, Miami defeated South Carolina 13-11 and Kent State was a 17-9 victim of San Diego.

Ohio State used its usual grinding ground attack, with the fleet Cornelius Green and Archie Griffin breaking loose for long gains. Greene scored twice, once on a 72-yard run, and Griffin dashed 68 yards for another TD.

But the victory was expensive for the defending Big Ten champions as Harold "Champ" Henson, the nation's leading scorer last fall, suffered torn left knee ligaments.

Hanson underwent surgery Sunday and is likely to be out for the rest of the season.

Xavier scored its winning touchdown with just 41 seconds remaining on the clock. Fullback Dwight Chapman carried the ball into the end zone from the three-yard-line, where it had been placed after interference was called on Marshall during a pass play that began on the Thundering Herd's 34.

CHS Reserves Rip McClain

Circleville's reserve gridders rolled to a 48-0 win over Greenfield McClain Saturday on the loser's turf.

Alan Underwood led the Roundtown scoring with three touchdowns. He tallied on a 70-yard punt return, a 50-yard pass from Brent Mancini and a three-yard run.

John Payne scored on a three-yard run, Dan Marshall tallied on a 45-yard pass from Phil Roll, Kevin Smith on a seven-yard run and Sam Webb on a 45-yard pass from Roger Halley. Roll kicked six conversions.

Circleville coaches were quite pleased with the defensive unit which kept Greenfield in check throughout the contest.

Circleville is now 4-0 and will host Wilmington 10 a.m. Saturday.

Adams Wins Golf Clash

BETTENDORF, Iowa (AP) — Sam Adams said farewell to some old golfing buddies Sunday, and he doesn't regret it one bit.

"Well, no more Monday qualifying," said the 27-year-old left-hander as an afterthought when discussing his victory in the $100,000 Quad Cities Open with a 16-under par 268.

"I'm not going to miss that qualifying at all," said the second-year tour regular from Boone, N.C., with a smile. "I made a lot of my friends on the tour during those Monday rounds. Now I just hope this can happen to them."

The three-stroke victory over Dwight Nevil and Kermit Zarley means that the curly-haired 150 pounder is an "exempt player" and won't have to go through the Monday ordeal.

Adams pocketed $20,000 for his initial pro victory, and that's almost as much as he won all of last year when he collected $20,747.

Slay Elephant At Cincinnati

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Police Sunday night shot an elephant to death who became unmanageable for trainers of the Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey Circus.

Circus officials explained that the elephant named "Tyler," had lost his fear of man and became unmanageable. Trainers told police they feared the animal would transfer the unmanageability to other elephants in the show.

Tyler was kept out of both the afternoon and evening performances on the closing night at Cincinnati Gardens.

The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals approved the destruction decision after Dr. Jerry Theobald of the Cincinnati Zoo knocked the animal out with a drug.

The animal was valued at $30,000, police said.

Sam Snead Winner Of Homestead Golf

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP) — They have the Homestead golf sweepstakes and best ball competition every fall, and any year now they're going to start calling it the "Sam Snead Open" after an ageless native son.

The 61-year-old Snead, who earlier this month won his fourth World Professional seniors championship, shot a one-under-par 70 Sunday over the Cascades course and made off with his ninth pro title in the 21 years the local tournaments has been held.

Austin Carr Leads Cavaliers To Victory

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, Ill. (AP) — Former Notre Dame performer Austin Carr scored 10 points in a row in the fourth quarter to lead the Cleveland Cavaliers to a 95-90 victory over the Chicago Bulls in a National Basketball Association preseason doubleheader Sunday.

Carr led all scorers with 22 points. Second-year man Rolland Garrett was tops for the Bulls with 18.

Rollie Beale Continues 1st In Sprint Points

SALEM, Ind. (AP) — A fifth place finish Sunday in the U.S. Auto Club sprint car race at Salem Speedway kept Rollie Beale, Of Toledo, Ohio in first place in the driver point standings.

The winner of the race was Tom Bigelow, Whitewater, Wisc., who finished more than three laps ahead of second place finisher Bruce Walkup.

AL Season Ends; Houk, Kasko Out

By FRED ROTHENBERG
 Associated Press Sports Writer
 The calendar gave the "You're out" sign to the American League baseball season.

The Boston management did the same to Red Sox Manager Eddie Kasko and Yankee Manager Ralph Houk took himself out of the old ballgame in New York.

Kasko, whose Boston Red Sox finished second, was fired Sunday while Houk, whose Yankees finally settled in fourth place, resigned.

Kasko and Houk joined Billy Martin, released by the third-place Detroit Tigers in early September, on the sidelines of the American League East.

Petty Wins Old Dominion 500 Race

MARTINSVILLE, Va. (AP) — "That's as hard as I have ever worked in my life. A man my age shouldn't have to put out like to make a living."

Richard Petty, one of two $1 million career winners in stock car auto racing, had just won the rain-shortened Old Dominion 500 after 480 grueling laps around the pint-sized .525-mile Martinsville Speedway.

His hands were blistered and he was so fatigued he had trouble holding the cigar he always puffs after he races.

"I don't know, but it seems like the older you get, the harder you have to work. Maybe I should quit... But, of course, I won't, not for a while, anyway," said the longtime champion, who celebrated his 36th birthday in July.

Petty had beaten a field of 36 starters in the $62,730 race, a late summer short-track classic that drew its usual standing room-only crowd of 28,000 despite ominous weather conditions.

Cale Yarborough led 366 of the 480 laps. He had won the pole position, carrying a $1,000 bonus, and for leading the most laps in the race he was paid another $5,000. His runner-up check for $5,000 made him the day's biggest winner.

Iranian Officials Seek 1980 Olympic Games

VARNA, Bulgaria (AP) — The 10th Olympic Congress opened today with Teheran preparing to challenge Moscow for the 1980 Olympics and international sports federations bidding for a simplified rule on amateurism and more power in Olympic affairs.

Location of the 1980 games will not be discussed on the Congress floor, but Iranian sports officials are behind the scenes testing the air for a 1980 Olympic Games bid.

"I'm doing this for one reason," said Houk after the Yankees dropped an 8-5 decision to the Tigers to close out a half-century at Yankee Stadium. "We've won some pennants here but it's been a little rough since 1966. You can't work that long in one place with the feeling you haven't quite got there."

"I fully understand that when changes have to be made they start at this end," said Kasko, before the club he managed for four years beat Milwaukee 3-2. "I'm sorry only that we didn't win."

Elsewhere in the American League's final day of regular season baseball action, Chicago nipped Oakland 1-0 in 10 innings, California blanked Minnesota 3-0 and Texas shut out Kansas City 3-0.

Martin moved southwest when he was named manager of the Texas Rangers. Kasko remains with the Red Sox as a scout while Houk's baseball plans are uncertain.

It was a tough day all around for the Yankees, who will vacate Yankee Stadium for two years while it undergoes a $24 million modernization program.

A nostalgic crowd of 32,238 saw the Yankees rally for three runs in the seventh to take a 4-2 lead but the Tigers scored eight times in the eighth for the victory.

The Red Sox ended their season in better fashion. They got a victory and a new manager. No Yankee successor was named to Houk.

Darrell Johnson, a former Yankee catcher, was picked to manage the Red Sox next season.

The Red Sox finished their season with 89-73 marks after winning their season finale on a gift run.

Angels 3, Twins 0

Frank Tanana, a 20-year-old rookie, pitched a two-hitter, leading the California Angels to a 3-0 victory over the Minnesota Twins.

Bob Oliver's double and sacrifice fly knocked in two runs for Tanana, 2-2, who struck out nine and walked one.

Adams Wins Golf Clash

BETTENDORF, Iowa (AP) — Sam Adams said farewell to some old golfing buddies Sunday, and he doesn't regret it one bit.

"Well, no more Monday qualifying," said the 27-year-old left-hander as an afterthought when discussing his victory in the $100,000 Quad Cities Open with a 16-under par 268.

"I'm not going to miss that qualifying at all," said the second-year tour regular from Boone, N.C., with a smile. "I made a lot of my friends on the tour during those Monday rounds. Now I just hope this can happen to them."

The three-stroke victory over Dwight Nevil and Kermit Zarley means that the curly-haired 150 pounder is an "exempt player" and won't have to go through the Monday ordeal.

Adams pocketed $20,000 for his initial pro victory, and that's almost as much as he won all of last year when he collected $20,747.

CARROLL RIGHTER'S HOROSCOPE

from the Carroll Righter Institute

GENERAL TENDENCIES: An excellent day to obtain information from past contacts and to make new friends with those who can show you how to get ahead in ways not known to you before. Also communicate with those you have been out of touch with.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) You are able to obtain information now that has been difficult to find in the past. A talk with one who thinks differently from you can bring fine results. Do something thoughtful for mate.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Take care of responsibilities that are strictly your own. Also, handle association and government matters with special care. Do the thoughtful things that bring you and mate closer.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Diplomacy must be exercised when dealing with associates so that you don't sever valuable connections. Don't fall into a trap that could start an argument. Avoid a troublemaker.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Handle important duties you have to do and stop thinking about going off on a tangent. Show more cooperation where co-workers are concerned. Take it easy tonight.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Take time to engage in favorite hobbies and perfect them. Show closest tie that you are happy with the relationship. Avoid one who has an eye on your assets. Keep out of trouble.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) There are many duties to take care of at home so try to spend as much time there as you can. Forego outside activities. Study new interest that will help you to start an uptrend.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Shopping and errands should be handled early before you get into problematical affairs. Be sure you first finish your work before going out for recreation in the evening. Be wise.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You can make repairs to property and add to its value at this time. Improve your budget so that it is more workable and flexible. Show that you are a practical person. Relax tonight.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Taking the treatments you need to have better health and a more charming appearance is wise now. Accept an invitation to a civic affair. Make the acquaintance of an interesting person.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Plan time to get your future better organized so that you can achieve more. Get your facts and figures straight. Give assistance to a friend who needs it badly. Improve your health.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Make proper plans to gain the personal wishes that mean a great deal to you. Get rid of anything you do not want in life. Little gifts to friends will be appreciated. Show that you have wisdom.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Make sure you handle matters in the business world well, including any important public matters. Paying bills that are due now is important. Show that you are a practical person.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY . . . he or she will be one of those delightful young people who will speak out honestly, but it is important that you teach diplomacy, otherwise your progeny could easily be hurt by others. Direct the education along lines of imports and exports. Permit to travel some early in life. Give as fine an education as you can afford. Teach ethical training early in life.
"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Women Take Over BBC Radio Show

LONDON (AP) — "I'm afraid we've made a bit of a mess of this," one novice announcer apologized to her audience as her script bested her.

But generally it was smooth listening Sunday as the male-heavy British Broadcasting Corporation handed over one of its four radio channels to women for a "concentrated look at the situation of women in society."

For more than 16 straight hours, a lineup of women artists, entertainers and government officials confidently described the achievements and problems of women. Conspicuous by their absence were the militant members of the Women's Liberation Workshop, Britain's largest feminist group.

"The day wasn't intended to be an expression of women's lib," explained Susanna Capon, the 29-year-old script editor in charge of Women's Day on the BBC's network. "It was rather a chance to show off women's talents."

The high point of the day's programs was a 40-minute discussion on women's politics between Education Minister Margaret Thatcher, the only woman in Prime Minister Edward Heath's cabinet, and the woman member of the Labor party's shadow cabinet. She is Shirley Williams and it is her job to keep an eye on the Home Office.

Mrs. Thatcher, the mother of twins, has been proposed by some for the prime ministership. She said there is little hope for a woman to reach that office at present.

"There haven't been any women who have come up to the top without being attached to a significant man or without being in right at the beginning of the country's movement," she said.

Mrs. Williams agreed and noted the toughness of life in top-level jobs.

Socialist Candidates Expect Little From Cleveland Race

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Few expect the two socialist candidates in the Cleveland mayoralty race to make much of a showing in Tuesday's primary, least of all the two candidates. And they're not rooting for each other either.

"Socialist? She's no socialist," grumped 69-year-old Joseph Pirincin, Socialist Labor party candidate. He referred to 20-year-old Roberta Scherr, the candidate of the Socialist Workers party.

Their ages tell the story. Pirincin, who has run for a battery of public offices and lost them all, is an old-time socialist whose interest in his party goes back to 1919.

Ms. Scherr, who postponed college to wage her campaign, is a member of the Young Socialist Alliance — a group begun by radical young people in the 1960s.

Both dismiss the other two major party candidates in the race as "Tweedledee and Tweedledum." They are incumbent Republican Ralph Perk and Democrat James Carney.

Both Socialists say they would use the mayor's office as a forum to espouse socialism. Both admit they have little chance of winning, and both stress the serious, symbolic nature of their campaigns.

Name Interim U.S. Marshal

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Ernest V. D'Amico, a 28-year veteran of the U.S. Marshal's office in Cincinnati, has succeeded Donald M. Horn as interim U.S. Marshal for the southern district of Ohio.

His position becomes official upon appointment by President Nixon and confirmation by the Senate.

Horn resigned recently for reasons of health.

D'Amico, a native of Peru, Ind., has lived in Cincinnati since 1915.

Bella Abzug Asks For Impeachment

NEW YORK (AP) — Rep. Bella Abzug, D-N.Y., says she has circulated a proposal among several members of the House asking for the initiation of impeachment proceedings against President Nixon.

"Nixon has said that he would not turn over the (Watergate) tapes, even under a directive from the Supreme Court," Ms. Abzug said on a local television show Sunday, "and that the only thing which could force him to relinquish the tapes would be impeachment proceedings. I think it's about time to call President Nixon's bluff."

Congressman Harsha's Washington Report

Vice President Agnew has requested the House of Representatives to conduct a full inquiry into the allegations that he has been involved in criminal misconduct as a state and local official in Maryland.

While I am deeply concerned that this most serious matter is quickly resolved for the sake of both the Vice President and the country, I do not believe that a congressional investigation at this time would be appropriate.

In the first place, the matter is already under investigation by the Justice Department. I believe that the judicial branch is the proper arm of the government to deal with this matter at this stage, and there are several reasons why I have come to this conclusion.

The Vice President has argued that according to the Constitution, a person holding the office of Vice President is not subject to ordinary court proceedings and can only be tried through congressional impeachment proceedings. This position has posed some very sticky and complicated legal questions, and until the courts decide whether the Vice President can or cannot be indicted while in office, I do not believe the House should take any action that might impede a judicial determination of that issue.

Should the courts decide that the Vice President is indictable, then the original criminal allegations could then be reviewed in the court and resolved in the proper judicial manner.

Secondly, in asking for a congressional investigation, the Vice President cited a precedent established by an 1827 House investigation into accusations of wrongdoings by the then Vice President John C. Calhoun. Calhoun, as does Mr. Agnew now, requested the investigation on the grounds that the public attacks against him assumed "the character of impeachable offenses". They were therefore matters for congressional investigation.

Calhoun argued, since the sole power of impeachment rests in the House. Calhoun was investigated and cleared, but there is an important difference between the two cases: Calhoun was not under any criminal investigation of the accusations at the time as is Vice President Agnew.

In addition, there is another House precedent which applies to the case. In 1872, the House Judiciary Committee decided that the House had no impeachment jurisdiction over acts allegedly committed by a Vice President — Schuyler Colfax — before he took office. It is my understanding that Vice President Agnew is under investigation for actions occurring

Pratt Retrial Decision Studied

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)— A decision was expected today from the Scioto County prosecutor on whether he plans to seek a new trial for Ronald Pratt. Last week a jury could not reach a decision on a charge Pratt smuggled a gun to a prison inmate.

Prosecutor Everett Burton said the decision would be made today, but he did not indicate what his office will do with the case.

Pratt was acquitted Friday night by a jury of five men and seven women of sneaking a gun into the Southern Ohio Correctional Facility to inmate Wayne Raney. The jury also found the former guard innocent of aiding Raney in his unsuccessful escape last July 24.

Pratt remains free on $8,500 bond.

before he became Vice President. Until there is any evidence to the contrary which might be revealed through the judicial process, then the House has no business investigating the Vice President.

Consequently, I think it is utterly ridiculous for the House to involve itself in such a political and legal hassle at this time. For almost a year now, this government has been tied up in the Watergate Circus in the Senate, and as a result, the vital domestic issues of this nation have been neglected. Now, for the House to plunge into a similar investigation would only compound the massive legislative backlog and impede the proper judicial process in the courts of the United States.

The fairest hearing for the Vice President of his case at this time is in the courts, not in a political and partisan atmosphere of a Democrat controlled Congress. And the greatest service the Congress could render to this nation would be to get on with the country's pressing legislative business, not to set up another ring in the Watergate Circus.

The great issues facing America, such as the fuel and energy crisis, inflation, education, pension reform and many others, must be resolved, and any further delay is to abdicate our responsibility to endeavor to alleviate these problems.

Republican State Party Chairman Slated To Speak

The Pickaway County Republican Executive and Central Committees will sponsor a dinner Oct. 25 at the Carriage House.

KENT MCGOUGH

The featured speaker will be Kent McGough, the Ohio Republican State Chairman, who assumed his duties May 1, 1973.

A limited number of tickets are offered and may be obtained by calling Mary V. Hannan, 474-3030, Guy Sark, 983-3145 or Ned Dresbach, 474-5766.

McGough has been Allen County Republican chairman since 1954 and a member of the Republican State Central and Executive Committee from the Fourth Congressional District since 1959. He was elected treasurer of the committee in 1968.

McGough entered politics in 1950 when he played an important part in the Allen County campaign for the election of the late Senator Robert A. Taft.

Under his leadership, Allen County has consistently been a Republican stronghold, rolling up heavy GOP majorities for President Nixon in 1960 and 1968, for Governor Rhodes in 1962 and 1966, for Senator Saxbe in 1968 and Senator Robert Taft, Jr. in 1970. Allen County also stayed in the Republican column in the difficult GOP years of 1958 and 1964.

McGough was born in Allen County and has lived his entire life there. He was educated in Lima public schools and graduated from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, in 1939. Following service with the U.S. Army in World War II, McGough opened a general insurance agency in Lima with his younger brother.

John Massis of Belgium is said to be the man with the world's "strongest teeth. In 1969 he pulled a 40-ton train by a bit in his teeth.

NOW! SEE THE FRESHNESS FOR YOURSELF

Consumers rightly expect the foods they buy to be fresh and good. That's why Kroger pampers and protects and rushes the foods we sell to stores at their peak of freshness.

Because we do take such care, Kroger is confident of the freshness of the foods we sell. That's why we can guarantee them on a replacement or money-back basis.

And that is why we open date foods for freshness. Some 1900 foods sold by Kroger now carry an open date... easy-to-read, such as AUG 30... to let you know the last day a product will be sold so it will stay fresh for an average usage period (or longer) after you buy it and carry it home.

For more than a year, Kroger has been open dating foods—everything from milk, eggs and bread to many items other grocers don't open date, such as jelly, snack crackers and peanut butter. Now that same service has been broadened to include pre-packaged fresh fruits and vegetables and fresh meats. They'll all carry the freshness date so you can see for yourself how fresh they are.

At Kroger, we believe that consumers have the right to know more about the foods they buy. We're open dating more foods than just about anybody else in the country. This is one more Kroger service designed to help you—the consumer.

See Both Sides Before You Buy!

Every fresh-cut morsel of our meat is packaged in clear plastic trays so you can see everything—the cut, amount of fat, and bone—from every side. No rewrapping or labeling is necessary for freezing and these trays will not stick or leave fuzz on the meat.
